

LESSON PLAN

TEL: (011) 444 6443
FAX: (011) 444 6955/2625944
E-MAIL: nokuthulasmh@mweb.co.za
NPO No: 001041

Subject: English	Grade:1	Term:1	Week: 4-5
Topic: Everybody is special me	Content:	Time allocation: 2 hours	Date started:
Prior content knowledge: Learners know that we don't look the same, some people are short some are tall.	Lesson objectives: The learners must be able to: - Respect everyone - Know that everyone is special	Vocabulary/ important words: - Special - Unique - Equally - Respect	Teaching strategies: - Demonstration - Observation - Question and answer - discussion
Resources: - video - pictures - chalkboard - worksheet	TEACHER'S ACTIVITIES - Teacher will explain to learners how everybody is special - Our fingerprints are unique, no one has the same finger prints as another person's. - As the teacher speak to learners will observe learner's interest and understanding - The teacher will walk around and ask learners to imitate their movements - Teacher will ask learners simple questions that require	LEARNER'S ACTIVITIES - Learners will listen to the teacher as she teaches and will know that everybody is special - Learners will know that our fingerprints are unique - Learners will have to listen attentively - Learners will imitate teacher's movement - Learners will answer simple questions asked by the teacher	Assessment goal: - Learner must know that we are all equal - Everybody is special - We must love our selves for who we are

	• yes or no answer • Teacher we make simple conversation with the learners and observe them		Assessment strategy: Informal X Formal Assessment tool: • Rubric
Differentiation (Enrichment opportunities/ addressing barriers) Group1: Learners will say some of their favourite thing orally, and also cut and paste pictures of their favourite Group2: Learners will point their favourites from the magazine, they will be assisted by the teacher to cut and paste Group3: Learners will point their favourite things from the chart			Practical task Learners will make their finger prints using a paint and white paper. Learners will know that their finger prints are unique.
Teacher reflection:			Name of Teacher: I Mudzunga
HOD Input:			Name of HOD: W. Manthata