

NAME: _____

GROUP: _____

ENGLISH

Study notes

Term 1

TEXT: MAGAZINE ARTICLE

NEW YEAR IN CHINA

In China, New Year is a big holiday. It begins in February with a new moon.

Before New Year, people clean their homes to sweep out bad luck. They open their doors for the old year to go out. Some people buy new red clothes, because they say red is a lucky colour.

At New Year, families eat a big meal together. People also celebrate with fireworks. When the New Year ends after two weeks, children carry lanterns through the streets.

A) Spelling words to learn

1. new 2. knew 3. year 4. big 5. moon 6. people
7. February 8. clean 9. their 10. there 11. together 12. with

B) Punctuation

A full stop is used at the end of a sentence.

A question mark indicates that a question has been asked.

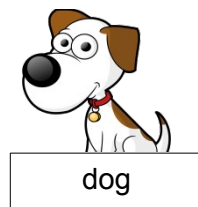

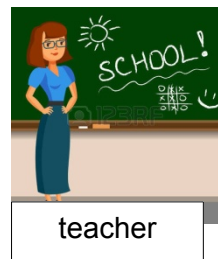

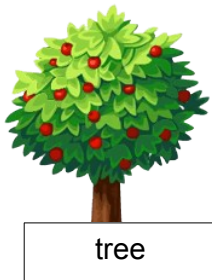

Quotation marks show that words have been quoted.

C) Language Structure and Conventions

1) Common Nouns

Common nouns are names of things that you can see and touch. Common nouns are naming words for things found around us. It is written in lower case.

Proper nouns are names of people and places.
Proper nouns are written in capital letters.

This is Mrs. Papp.

This is Ntando Mokoena.

This is Harshil Solanki .

This is Woolworths store.

This is Pick n Pay.

This is Spar.

This is Shoprite.

This is Capitec bank.

A Simple sentence has only one doing word.

Example: The boy kicks the ball.

A simple sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with a full stop.

4) Complex sentences

A complex sentence is two simple sentences that are joined together with a conjunction.

Example:

conjunctions:	and	because
---------------	-----	---------

Mother goes to Shoprite. She buys food. (and)

Mother goes to Shoprite and she buys food.

Mother goes to Capitec bank. She needs money. (because)

Mother goes to Capitec bank because she needs money.

5) Present Tense and Simple Past Tense

(Tense = Time action takes place)

The verb (doing word) in a sentence indicates the time that the action takes place.

5.1) Present Tense

The action takes place in the present.

Words to look out for: today, every day, always

She goes to school today.

We go to school every day.

He always plays soccer.

5.2) Simple Past Tense

The action took place in the past.

Words to look out for: yesterday, last week, last year, long ago.

She went to school yesterday.

We went to town last week.

Mother baked a cake last year.

They were friends long ago.

Present		Past
Singular	Plural	Singular	Plural
he, she, the girl, Lerato ...	they, we, the girls, Lerato and Sihle ...	he, she, the girl, Lerato ...	they, we, the girls, Lerato and Sihle ...
walks	walk	walked	walked talks	talk	talked	talked shows	show	showed	showed looks	look	looked	looked runs	run	ran	ran
swims	swim	swam	swam
says	say	said	said
goes	go	went	went kicks	kick	kicked	kicked sees	see	saw	saw
eats	eat	ate	ate
comes	come	came	came
hears	hear	heard	heard
is	are	was	were

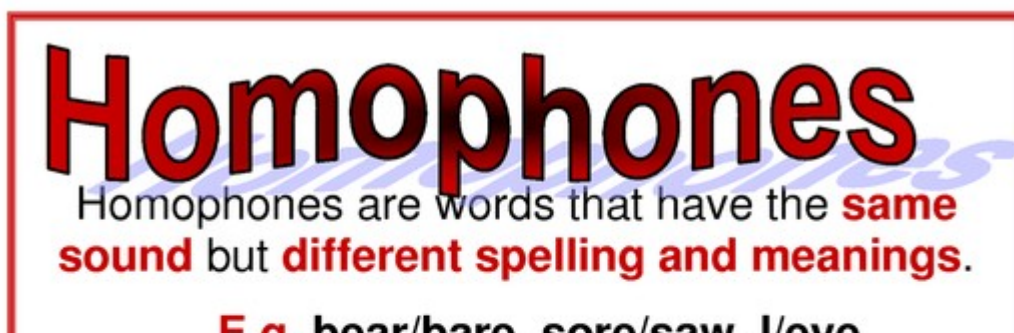

6) Compound words

When two words are put together to form one new word, we call the new word a compound word.

- a) bath + room = bathroom b) school + bag = schoolbag
c) good + bye = goodbye d) rattle + snake = rattlesnake

7) Homophones

Homophones are words that have the same sound but different spelling and meanings

1. Meat is the flesh of an animal
2. To meet somebody is to come together.
3. The sea is the ocean.
4. To see is to look
5. To write is to make symbols on paper with a pen or pencil.
6. Something that is right is not wrong.

8) Homonyms

two or more words having the same spelling or pronunciation but different meanings

show

We are going to the theatre to see a show.

I show my book to the teacher.

2. watch

They watch the soccer match on TV.

I received a new watch for Christmas.

3. fine

My father received a fine for speeding.

I feel fine today.

4. shape

A round shape is called a circle.

She exercises every day to stay in good shape.

5. bark

The dogs bark loudly at the intruder.

The skin of a tree is called bark.

9) Opposites

Opposites
hot	cold
old	new / young
up	down
left	right
strong	weak
tall	short
clean	dirty
blunt	sharp
girl	boy

TEXT: INSTRUCTIONS

You will need:

1. A square of thick paper (decorate your paper with bright colours and patterns)

2. scissors
3. sticky tape, a stapler or glue

Instructions:

1. Cut off a strip of paper. This will be the handle of your lantern.
2. Fold the big piece of paper in half.
3. Cut along the fold about ten times. Don't cut right to the edge.
4. Open out the piece of paper. Put a line of glue along the top edge
5. Stick together the top and bottom.
6. Put glue on each end of the strip that you cut out in Step 1.
7. Glue the strip to the top of the lantern to make a handle.
8. Hang up your Chinese lanterns on string.

8) VERBS (doing words)

cut fold open stick put glue hang

TEXT: STORY (LIN YI'S LANTERN)

“Now, tell me again what you are to buy from the market,” said Lin Yi’s mother.

Lin Yi counted the items off on his fingers as he repeated the list once more.

“Good boy,” said his mother.

READING CARDS: LIN YI'S LANTERN

“Now, tell me again what you are to buy from the market,” said Lin Yi’s mother.

2

Lin Yi counted the items off on his fingers as he repeated the list once more.

“Good boy,” said his mother.

“Can I buy a red rabbit lantern for the moon festival – please?” begged Lin Yi.

5

“Well, that is up to you,” said his mother.
“I have no money to spare but if you bargain well you may have money left for a red rabbit lantern.”

6

Lin Yi smiled happily. “That won’t be a problem, I can bargain better than anyone I know.”

