We are the generation of the irrevocably broken, of the dead but walking,
of the meticulously hidden and the beautifully lost.

We are the generation of popping pills in place of life, of accidental overdoses and mixed up meds, of orange bottles and white coats.

We are the generation of drinking alone to quench the pain, of drugs coursing through our veins to make the sadness go away,
of needles and shot glasses.

We are the generation of the "academically competitive", of panic attacks every night, of straight As and hollow eyes.

We are the generation
of whispers behind palms, of fake smiles to hide the judgement of the hateful and the lonely.

We are the generation of skipped dances and skipped meals, of scales weighed heavy with broken hearts, of self loathing and heartbreak.

We are the generation of the future.

You are not your age,
Nor the size of clothes you wear,
You are not a weight,
Or the colour of your hair.
You are not your name,
Or the dimples in your cheeks,
You are all the books you read,
And all the words you speak,
You are your croaky morning voice,
And the smiles you try to hide, You're the sweetness in your laughter,
And every tear you've cried, You're the songs you sing so loudly, When you know you're all alone, You're the places that you've been to,
And the one that you call home, You're the things that you believe in,
And the people that you love,

You're the photos in your bedroom,
And the future you dream of,
You're made of so much beauty,
But it seems that you forgot,
When you decided that you were defined,
By all the things that you are not.

We live inside our heads

We frequently zone out. We get lost in thought and spend much of our time inside our heads.	18
If our immediate reality becomes boring, we will retreat into our minds,	30
and you might have to shout our names repeatedly to get our attention so we will come out again.	49
An no, sorry, but you can't come into our heads with us. You wouldn't last five minutes in there.	68
You'd be driven insane by the nonstop cacophony of overlapping voices madly free-associating from one idea to the next.	83
