

NAME: _____

YEAR: _____

ENGLISH

YEAR 3

TERM 1

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 1)

ACTIVITY 1LISTENING & SPEAKING

DISCUSSION: What is communication?

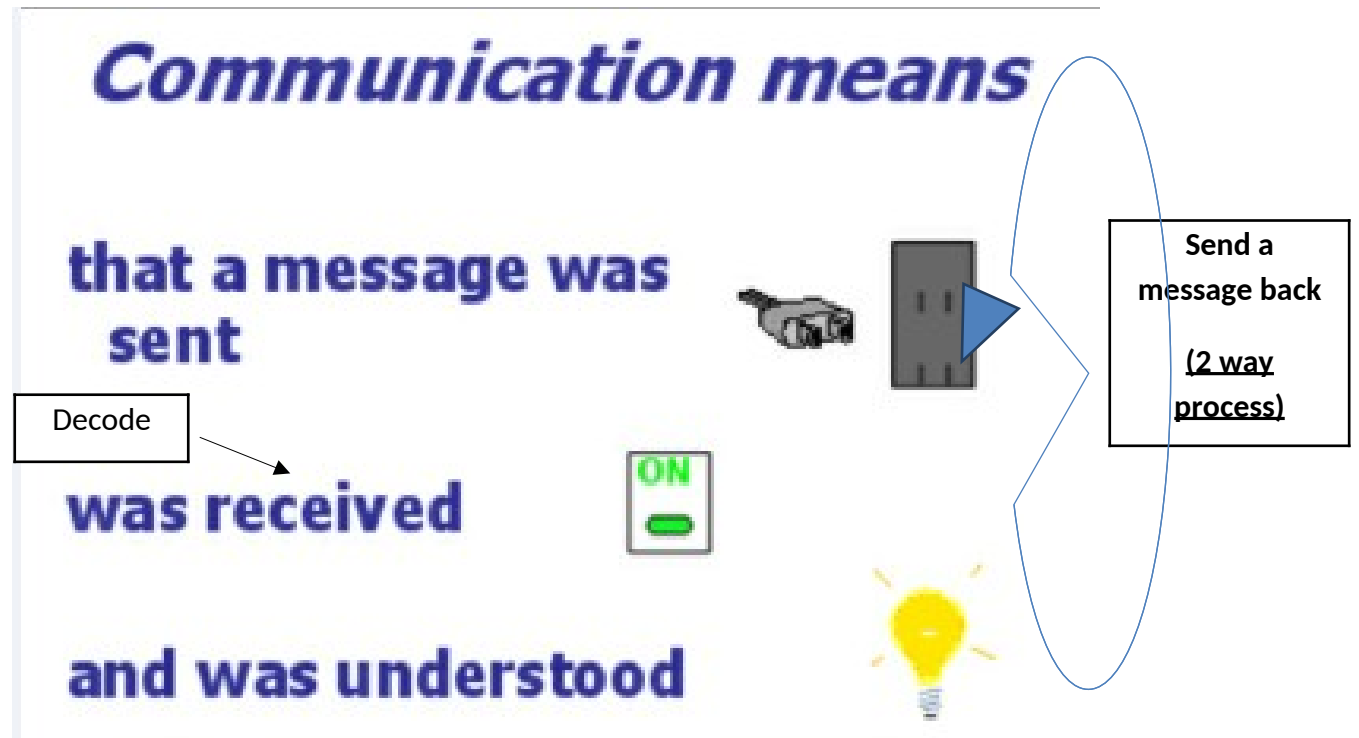

Content

The learner is able to:

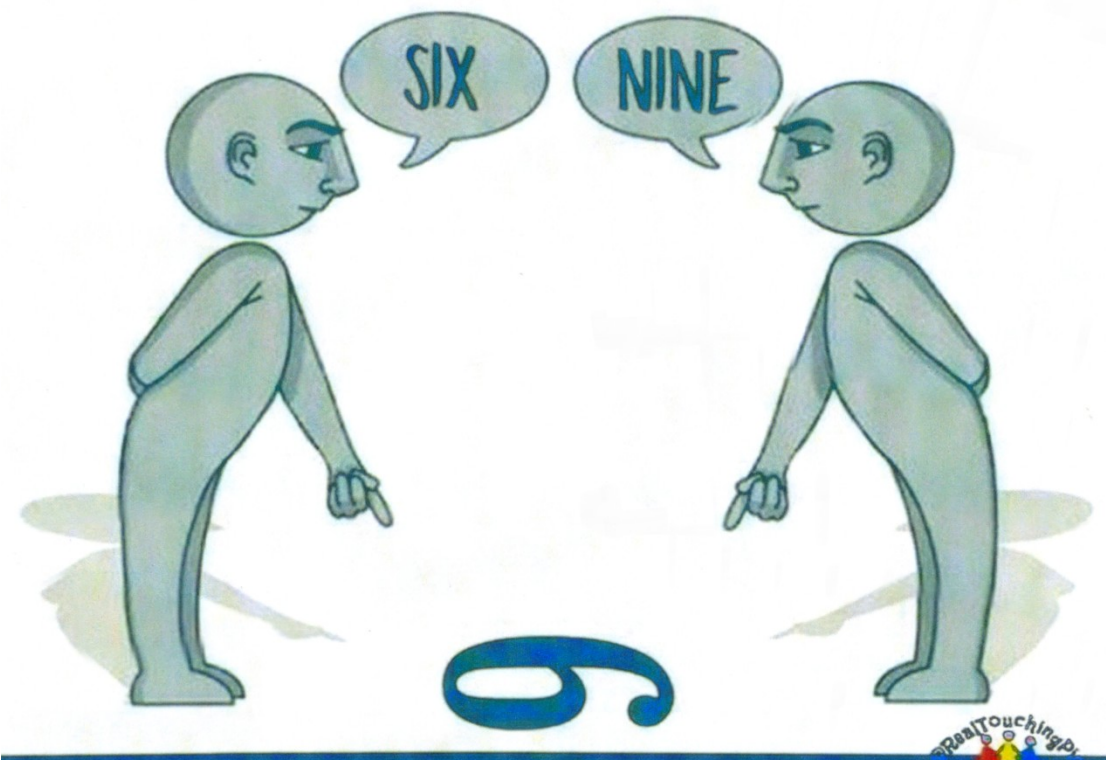

- Understand and use new vocabulary
- Take part in discussion
- Give own opinion
- Answer questions

New vocabulary.

1. Sender	The person who sends the message (Communicates)
2. Receiver	The person who receives the message
3. Decode	Understand the message
4. Respond	Say something back / send a message back

Look at the following illustration. Take part in a conversation that your teacher will initiate on how communication can cause confusion among speakers. Name a few factors that can contribute to misunderstanding of each other.

Just because you are right, does not mean, I am wrong. You just haven't seen life from my side.

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 1)

ACTIVITY 2

READING & VIEWING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Take part in shared reading
- Apply individual reading

2.1 What is communication?

Communication means

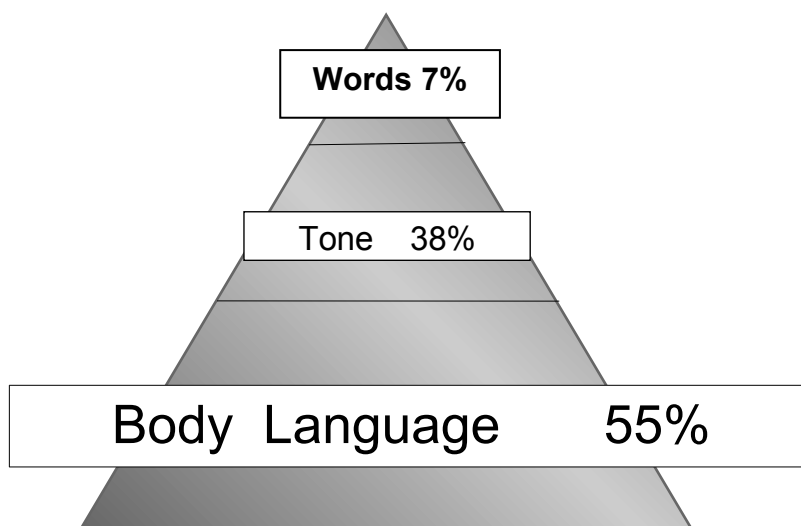

- that a message was sent
- was received
- was understood

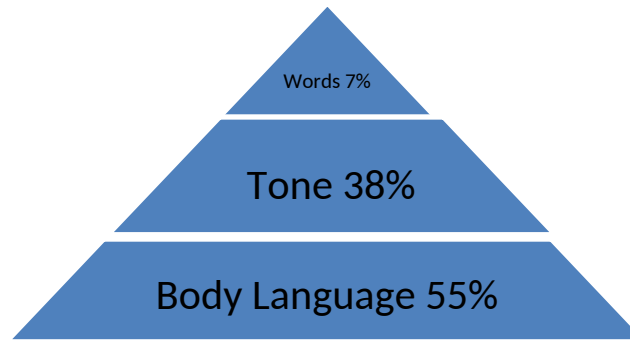

We respond based on:

- what we think we have heard
- our background and
- our beliefs.

However, when we communicate, words are only part of the story. We also use body language and tone of voice to communicate.

2.2 Three parts of communication

A Words

Words make up a mere 7% of communication. However, if we do not know what the words mean, there is no way that we can communicate successfully.

B Tone of voice

Tone of voice is how we say something, compare for example:

- THIS is mine
- This IS mine
- This is MINE

C Body Language

Body language is the way we use our bodies to communicate, for example rolling our eyes, using our hands and even the way we stand. It is important to keep our body language positive. Some examples of positive body language are:

- Making eye contact
- Keeping our hands open as opposed to clenched
- Smiling
- Standing up straight
- Leaning towards the person we are listening to
- Turning our head slightly towards the person talking.

Positive body language

Happy / Excited

Friendly
Respectful

Negative body language

Anger

Common Gesture Clusters Nervousness

- Clearing one's throat,
- Chain smoking.
- Covering the mouth with hand,
- Tapping fingers.
- Whistling,
- Jangling pocket change,
- Fidgeting,
- Twitching lips or face.

Unhappy
Sad
Hopelessness

Frustration

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 1)

ACTIVITY 3

WRITING & PRESENTING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Apply new knowledge to complete activity

3.1 What did you learn?

Complete the sentences, by underlining the correct word.

1. Person who sends the message must be (old / clear).
2. Important to understand the message, before (sending / responding) on it.
3. Use (negative / positive) body language
4. There is (more / less) than one way to communicate – verbal and non-verbal
5. A message can (slowly / quickly) be understood wrong.

3.2 What is communication?

Fill in the correct word. Choose from the word box.

Think	respond	decode	two-way process
background	information	person	code	receiver	sender

a) Communication is a _____

b) There is a _____ (the person sending the information) and a _____ (the person receiving the information).

c) It is as if we talk in _____ and the receiver has to _____ the message before he can understand it.

d) We _____ based on what we _____ we have heard, our beliefs and our _____

3.3 When we communicate we use the following:

3.4 Name the 6 signs of positive body language.

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 1)

ACTIVITY 4

LANGUAGE STRUCTURE & CONVENTIONS

Content

The learner is able to:

- Understand and demonstrate the use of the demonstrative pronouns.

Demonstrative pronouns

Singular

We say this is when it is near.

This is my house.

We say that is when it is far.

That is a boat.

This is my cat.

That is a bird.

Plural

We say these are when they are near.

These are my cats.

We say those are when they are far.

Those are stars.

Demonstrative pronouns

4.1 Singular: this and that

1. _____ is my school bag.
2. _____ car across the road is red.
3. I love _____ banana milkshake.
4. Look at _____ monkey in the tree.
5. Wash _____ spoon before you dry _____ plate.
6. _____ boy next to the tree is my brother.
7. _____ is my new dog.

These are my new shoes.

4.2 Plural: these and those

1. _____ are my cats.
2. At night _____ stars look like tiny spots of light.
3. I received _____ new shoes for my birthday.
4. _____ birds are flying away.
5. I like _____ pancakes.
6. _____ learners on the playground are noisy.

Those are birds.

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 2)

ACTIVITY 5

LISTENING & SPEAKING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Demonstrate and mime positive and negative body language

New vocabulary.

1.Excessive	More than is necessary (Too much)
2.Nodding	Lower and raise your head slightly
3. Fidgeting

Body Language: The signals you SEND

Positive Signals

- Leaning forward = interest
- Smiling = friendly
- Nodding = attentive and alert
- Eye contact = curious and focused

Negative Signals

- Crossed arms = defensive
- Fidgeting hands or tapping feet = nervous or bored
- Lack of eye contact = untrustworthy
- Leaning back = discomfort

Complete the table: Body language

Positive signals		Negative signals
Signal	Meaning	Signal	Meaning
Leaning forward		Crossed arms
Smiling		Fidgeting
Nodding		Lack of eye contact
Eye contact		Leaning back

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 2)

ACTIVITY 6 READING & VIEWING

Content

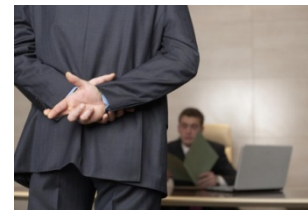

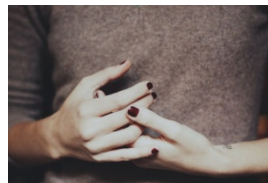

The learner is able to:

- Read individually

Going for an interview

Top 10 body language mistakes

1. Slouching
2. Breaking eye contact
3. Pointing
4. Crossed arms
5. Excessive nodding
6. Fidgeting
7. Hands behind your back
8. Mismatched expressions
9. Shifty eyes
10. Staring

Read the following paragraph out loud.

Don't slouch during an interview! Leaning back in your chair makes you appear either lazy or arrogant. Leaning forward makes you look too eager or aggressive. It is best to sit up straight in the chair.

DATE: _____ TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 2)

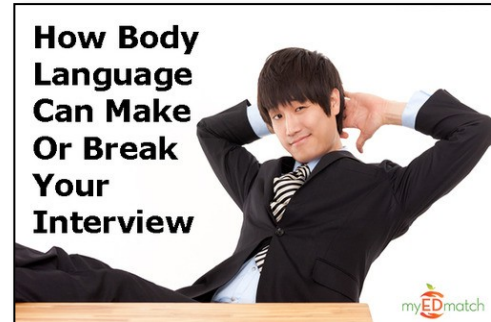

ACTIVITY 7

WRITING & PRESENTING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Write a list

List eight body language mistakes one can make in an interview.

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 2)

ACTIVITY 8

LANGUAGE STRUCTURE & CONVENTIONS

Content

The learner is able to:

- Understand and demonstrate the use of demonstrative pronouns in plural form.

1. _____ are my pencils.

2. _____ are my mother's pencils.

3. _____ flowers are beautiful

4. _____ flowers are dead.

6. _____ apples are green.

7. _____

8. _____ apples are red.

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 3)

ACTIVITY 9

LISTENING & SPEAKING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Listen, interpret and assess demonstrations of different body languages

Body Language

First look at the demonstration of the teacher and learners having an interview and then complete the following questions by filling in true or false.

1. The teacher kept her eyes focused on the learners. _____
2. The teacher's arms were nicely (not crossed) on her lap. _____
3. The teacher kept her hands still. _____
4. The teacher walked in with her hands next to her body. _____
5. The teacher used the right facial expressions. _____
6. The teacher nodded her head when she agreed to something. _____
7. The teacher sat up straight. _____
8. Do you think the teacher is ready for an interview?

Tick the correct reason.

- ☐ No, the teacher's body language is incorrect. She must still practice.
- ☐ Yes, the teacher's body language is correct.

DATE: _____ TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 3)

ACTIVITY 10 READING & VIEWING / WRITING & PRESENTING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Apply shared reading on an information text.

Match the body language to the correct meaning

Body Language	Answer	Meaning
a) Brisk, erect walk		1. Defensiveness
b) Standing with hands on hips		2. Rejection, doubt, lying
c) Arms crossed on chest		3. Anger, frustration, apprehension
d) Touching, slightly rubbing nose		4. Anticipation
e) Hand to cheek		5. Insecurity, nervousness
f) Hands clasped behind back		6. Impatience
g) Rubbing hands		7. Confidence
h) Tapping or drumming fingers		8. Authoritative
i) Biting nails		9. Evaluation, thinking
j) Steeping fingers		10. Readiness, aggression

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 4)

ACTIVITY 11

LANGUAGE STRUCTURE & CONVENTIONS

Content

The learner is able to:

- Write short sentences
- Correctly use the definite and indefinite article in writing.

Definite Articles

- In English, THE is a definite article. The is used to indicate a specific noun. (In English, it does not matter if the noun is masculine, or feminine, singular or plural.)

the boy

the boys

the book

the books

the girl

the girls

the table

the tables

about a specific object or person.

that you borrowed from me.

referring to a specific thing or person.

terday.

But if it starts with a vowel (a, e, i, o, u), we use an.

in my basket.

in my basket.

Definite article (the)

Fill in “the”

1. Please return _____book that you borrowed from me.
2. I like _____red flowers in my garden.
3. She wore _____green dress for her interview.

Indefinite article (a and an)

Fill in ‘a’ or ‘an’

1. I brought _____banana to school.
2. Bring _____umbrella, it’s going to rain.
3. He needs _____ruler in class.
4. Mother said _____apple _____day keeps the doctor away.

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 4)

ACTIVITY 12LANGUAGE STRUCTURE & CONVENTIONS

Content

The learner is able to:

- Understand when to use because and but when joining sentences.

Conjunctions

Conjunction	Examples
'Because' is used to show reason.	1) I did not go swimming because it was raining.
	2) We could not sleep because it was too hot.
'But' is used to join two ideas that are opposite.	1) Pieter is poor but he is happy.
	2) He fell into the drain but was not hurt.

Choose the correct conjunction and join the two sentences to make a compound sentence. Write the sentences on the lines.

Go outside and clean your feet.	because but	She wasn't hurt.
She fell into the drain.		Clean your shoes.
Please go outside.		They are dirty.

a) _____

b) _____

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 5)

ACTIVITY 13

LISTENING & SPEAKING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Discuss the three communication styles and apply to own life.

Three communication styles

Information text

The three ego states of communication.

When we communicate we can choose to communicate from a parent, adult or child ego state.

Let me use an example to explain: Remember when your mother just cleaned the kitchen floor and you came running in with muddy feet? Your mother shouted: “Hey, you with the dirty feet, outside! Your mother was communicating from a parent state.

You felt hurt because it was not on purpose and you pushed out your lip saying: “It’s not my fault.” That was communicating from the child state.

An adult ego state is where you use logic, facts and reason to communicate. Your mother could say: “I have just washed the floor and your feet are dirty. Please go outside and clean them before you come in.” That is communicating from an adult state.

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 5)

ACTIVITY 14

READING & VIEWING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Apply shared reading on three communication styles

Communicating as a PARENT

- This is the communication style that you pick up from all the people who taught you in your life, for example your parents, extended family, teachers, ministers of religion and those in authority positions.
- The parent communication style is judgemental and it shows your value system. Your father may well have said: “Boys don’t cry”. So, you are uncomfortable / judgemental when you see a boy/man crying.
- Phrases used are for example: how to, always, never.

Communicating as a CHILD

- When you act like a child, for example throwing a tantrum or ignoring someone is typical.
- It can also be playful, fun and full of jokes.

Communicating as an ADULT

- The ability to think and do for yourself, based on information that you have received. It is about direct, rational responses to the here and now.
- Phrases used are for example: “Why do you think that ____?”, “Where will you find that?” etc.

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 5)

ACTIVITY 15WRITING & PRESENTING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Match the characteristics and the three communication styles.

Write the characteristics of the different communication styles.Only write C/A/P which represents Child, Adult and Parent

COLUMN A	ANSWER: C / A / P
Reason
Playful
Condemn
Fun
Facts
Nurture
Tantrums
Logic
Manipulative Always, never

Write the correct communication style for each of the following statements:Only write C/A/P. It represents: Child, Adult and Parent

1	"A client is expecting the delivery this afternoon at 15:00. Can you please make sure it is done?"
2	"Ah shame, are you not feeling good today?"
3	"Can we discuss this?"
4	"You always expect me to work late!"
5	"How many times have I told you not to be late?"
6	"You are ignoring a colleague."
7	"I am unable to help you when you are interrupting me."
8	"Can you explain why you are late?"
9	"You look tired, why do you not sit down?"
10	Said in a sarcastic way: "Oh, I see you have not done your work!"

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 5)

ACTIVITY 16

LANGUAGE STRUCTURE & CONVENTIONS

Content

The learner is able to:

- Understand and use the definite article and indefinite article.

Complete with - A or An

1- ____ architect

9- ____ green apple

17- ____ aunt

2- ____ house

10- ____ apple

18- ____ uncle

3- ____ hour

11- ____ story

19- ____ hat

4- ____ good artist

12- ____ elevator

20- ____ help

5- ____ umbrella

13- ____ moment

21- ____ accident

6- ____ honest man

14- ____ bicycle

22- ____ elephant

7- ____ woman

15- ____ airplane

23- ____ car

8- ____ horse

16- ____ university

24- ____ ant

Fill in: the, a or an

- 1) ____ dog my father bought for me is a poodle.
- 2) ____ bike that Pablo bought cost him R20 000.
- 3) ____ movie we saw last night was very funny.

DATE: _____

TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 6)

ACTIVITY 17

LISTENING & SPEAKING / READING

Content

The learner is able to:

- Use polite forms of greeting on the three different levels of communication

Three levels of communication

1) Formal

When you speak to the manager of a company or when you go for an interview.

2) Informal

When you talk to friends you are more relaxed.

3) Personally

When you talk to someone whom you can share your secrets with.

DATE: _____ TOPIC: COMMUNICATION (WEEK 6)

ACTIVITY 18 REVISION TEST

SECTION A: READING COMPREHENSION

QUESTION 1

TEXT A: INFORMATION TEXT

Read the following information about communication and answer the comprehension questions.

WHAT IS COMMUNICATION

-

Communication is a two way process. When we communicate, we have a sender (the person communicating) and the receiver (the person receiving the information). However, it is as if we talk in code and the receiver has to decode the message before he can understand it.

We respond based on:

- what we think we have heard
- our background and
- our beliefs.

When we communicate, words are only part (7%) of the story. We also use body language (55%) and tone of voice (38%) to communicate.

Tone of voice

Tone of voice is how we say something, compare for example:

- THIS is mine
- This IS mine
- This is MINE

Depending on how we say something, we can change the meaning of our sentence completely. Tone is very important in determining the real message.

Body Language

Body language is the way we use our bodies to communicate, for example rolling our eyes, using our hands and even the way we stand. It is important to keep our body language positive. Some examples of positive body language are:

- Making eye contact
- Keeping our hands open as opposed to clenched
- Smiling
- Standing up straight
- Leaning towards the person we are listening to
- Turning our head slightly towards the person talking.

1) Why is communication a two-way-process? (2)

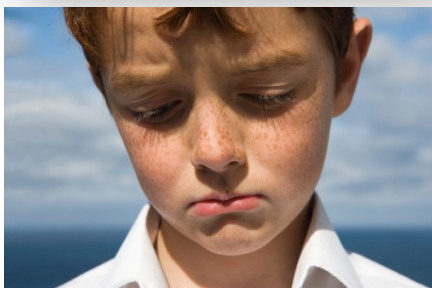

2) Name three things we use when communicating. (3)

3) Circle the correct word in brackets. (1)

Words make up the (smallest / biggest) part of communication.

4) How would you describe the body language in the following pictures? (2)

- 5) Why is the tone of your voice such an important part of communication? (1)

- 6) Give one example of positive body language. (1)

TOTAL QUESTION 1: (10)

SECTION B: LANGUAGE

QUESTION 2

TEXT B: INFORMATION TEXT

Read the following information text about the three ego states of communication and answer the language questions.

The three ego states of communication

1. When we communicate we can choose to communicate from a parent,
2. adult or child ego state.
3. Let me use an example to explain: Remember when your mother just
4. cleaned the kitchen floor and you came running in with muddy feet?
5. Your mother shouted: "Hey, you with the dirty feet, outside! Your
6. mother was communicating from a parent state.
7. You felt hurt because it was not on purpose and you pushed out your
8. ip saying: "It's not my fault." That was communicating from the child
9. state. An adult ego state is where you use logic, facts and reason to
10. communicate. Your mother could say: "I have just washed the floor
11. and your feet are dirty. Please go outside and clean them before
12. you come in." That is communicating from an adult state.

2.1) Fil in: the, a or an (3)

- We can communicate from _____ adult or _____ parent ego state.
- "Hey you with _____ dirty feet!"

- 2.2) Choose the correct conjunction and join the two sentences to make a compound sentence. Write the sentences on the lines.

Go outside and clean your feet.	because but	She wasn't hurt.
She fell into the drain.		Clean your shoes.
Please go outside.		They are dirty.

- a) _____ (2)
- b) _____ (2)

- 2.3) Find one question sentence in the information text and write it down. (1)

- 2.4) Find the compound word in line 5 and write it down. (1)

- 2.5) Circle the correct word in brackets. (2)

- (This / That) car opposite the street belongs to (mine / me).

- 2.6) Find the two verbs (doing words) in line 4 and write it down. (2)

- 2.7) Rewrite the following and put in the missing capital letters and punctuation.

(7)

you felt hurt because it was not on purpose and you pushed out your lip saying its not my fault

TOTAL QUESTION 2: (20÷2=10)

SECTION C: VISUAL LITERACY

QUESTION 3

- 3.1 Refer to the cartoon and list the three states of communication with examples from the cartoon. (6)

I have just washed the floor and your feet are dirty. Please go outside and clean them before you come in.

- 3.2 Read the following cartoons and say if the situations are Assertive / Non-Assertive or Aggressive. (4)

The husband is

The wife is because she gives her husband an order which clearly states that he is

The girl is

The woman is because she expresses what she thinks and feel in a positive way.

SECTION D

Q The remark you've just made has hurt me and I'm feeling anger toward you.

Ladybugs

Main Idea

The TOTAL QUESTION 3: (10) important point that the author is making about the topic / subject.

Ladybugs are colourful beetles. Most ladybugs have red wings with black spots. Some ladybugs have orange or yellow wings. One ladybug even has black wings with red spots!

1) What is the topic of this text? (1)

2) There are lots of detail you can learn about ladybugs from reading this text. What do the details tell you about ladybugs? (1)

3) What's the main idea of this text? (1)

4) What does the author say about most ladybugs? (1)

—

5) What does the author say about some ladybugs? (1)

—

TOTAL QUESTION 4: (5X2=10)