COMPUTER APPLICATION/ REKENAARVAARDIGHEID BUSINESS DOCUMENTS / BESIGHEIDSDOKUMENTE

Take part in enrichment opportunities where possible:

- Internet: online job search
- E-mail: e-mail etiquette

1. Look for available positions in your field.
2. Search job sites to find job openings.
3. Post your resume on large job sites.
4. By posting your resume on large job websites, there is a chance that your information will pop up when a recruiter or employer looks to see who is in the available pool of workers.
5. Pay to join a website that sends your resume out for you.
6. There are websites that charge a minimal fee for sending your resumes out for you.
7. Use social networking to notify everyone that you are looking for work.
8. When you use the Internet to let those you know that you are looking for a job, they may know of an opening somewhere or of a company who is hiring someone in your field.
9. You can use keywords to find jobs.
10. By inserting keywords into the search bar, you may find jobs that you would not have thought of without doing this.
11. Use the Internet to research industries that are hiring.
12. If your previous experience has been in a field that has not been hiring for several years, and they continue to downsize, your chances of being hired are lessened.

Where possible:
do practical activities on searching for a job.

Neem deel aan toerykende geleenthede waar moontlike:

- Internet: aanlyn werk soek
- E-mail: e-pos etiket

1. Soek beskikbare posisies in u vakgebied.
2. Soek werkwerwe om werkgeleenthede te vind.
3. Plaas u CV op groot werkwebwerwe.
4. Deur u CV op groot werkwebwerwe te plaas, is die kans goed dat u inligting sal verskyn wanneer 'n werwer of werkgever kyk wie in die beskikbare poel werkers is.
5. Betaal om aan te sluit by 'n webwerf wat u CV vir u uitstuur.
6. Daar is webwerwe wat 'n minimale fooi hef om hul CV's vir u uit te stuur.
7. Gebruik sosiale netwerke om almal in kennis te stel dat u werk soek.
8. As u die internet gebruik om diegene wat u weet te laat weet dat u werk soek, weet hulle moontlik van 'n opening êrens of van 'n maatskappy wat iemand in u veld aanstel.
9. U kan sleutelwoorde gebruik om werk te vind.
10. Deur sleutelwoorde in die soekbalk in te voeg, kan u werk kry waaraan u nie sou dink sonder om dit te doen nie.
11. Gebruik die internet om navorsingsbedrywe te huur.
12. As u vorige ervaring in 'n veld was wat al 'n paar jaar nie in diens is nie, en hulle steeds verminder, verminder u kanse om gehuur te word.

Waar moontlik:
doen praktiese aktiwiteite vir aansoek vir werk.

E-MAIL: E-MAIL ETIQUETTE

1. Keep your email concise, conversational, and focused.

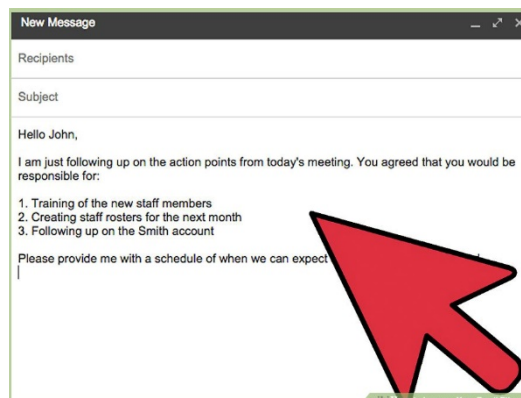

It is harder to read letters on a computer screen than on a sheet of paper, so keep emails short and to the point. While there is no ideal email length, keep sentences short.

In a work email, get straight to the point: "I'm hoping you will..." "I think we should..." etc. right up front, making the case in the following lines. Many people only read the first few lines before deciding to respond or to save for later.

1. Hou jou e-pos bondig, gespreksaam en gefokus.

Dit is moeiliker om briewe op 'n rekenaarskerm te lees as op 'n vel papier, dus hou e-posse kort en presies. Daar is geen ideale e-poslengte nie, maar hou sinne kort. Gaan reguit na 'n werk-e-pos: 'Ek hoop dat jy ...' 'Ek dink ons moet' ens. wees reguit: Baie mense lees eers die eerste paar reëls voordat hulle besluit om te reageer of om dit te stoor vir later.

2. Avoid fancy formatting.

Changing fonts and colours, inserting bullet lists, or using HTML can make an email look bizarre or render it unreadable for the recipient, even if the formatting looks fine on your computer. Keep it simple.

2. Vermyn deftige formatering.

Deur lettertipes en kleure te verander, kolpuntlyste in te voeg of HTML te gebruik, kan 'n e-pos bisar lyk of dit onleesbaar word vir die ontvanger, selfs al lyk die formatering op jou rekenaar korrek. Hou dit eenvoudig.

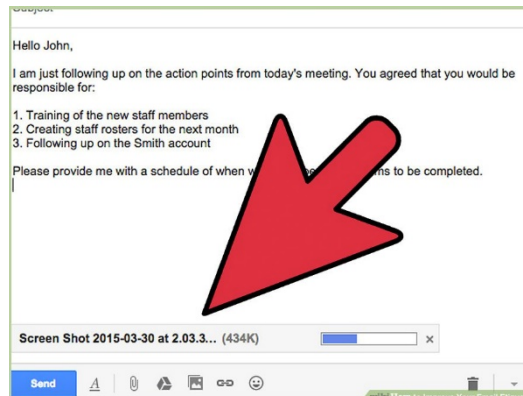

3. Limit attachments.

Don't add an attachment unless really necessary. Keep attachments as small as possible.

3. Beperk aanhangsels.

Moenie 'n aanhangsel byvoeg nie, tensy dit regtig nodig is. Hou aanhangsels so klein as moontlik.

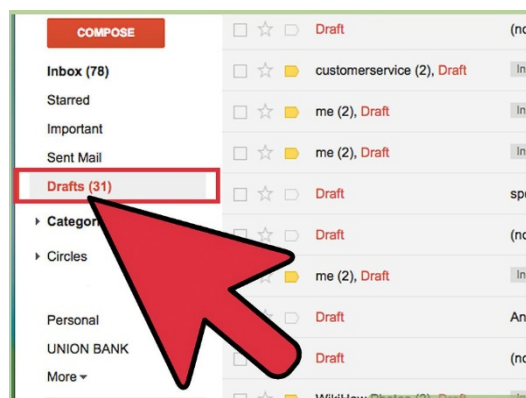

4. Think before you send.

Don't send e-mails when you are emotional. Feel free to write the subject and text of the email, then save it. Only add the recipients and send it after you have had time to think about what you are sending; you might change your mind and be better off for it.

4. Dink voordat jy stuur.

Moenie e-posse stuur as jy emosioneel is nie. Skryf die onderwerp en teks van die e-pos en stoor dit dan. Voeg slegs die ontvangers by en stuur dit nadat jy tyd gehad het om na te dink oor wat jy stuur; jy kan dalk van plan verander en beter afwees daarvan.

5. Be careful using abbreviations and emoticons.

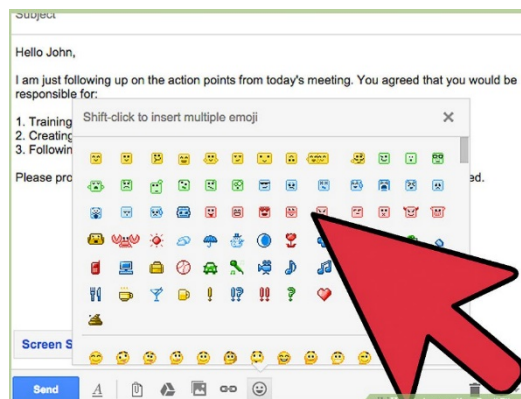

This may be acceptable in an informal e-mail such as with a friend. However, in a formal letter you wouldn't have to tell someone that you're "laughing out loud," people may find it inappropriate, and could feel you are being frivolous.

Some abbreviations, such as "BTW" for "By the Way," are commonly used in emails and are generally acceptable except in formal, professional emails.

5. Wees versigtig deur gebruik te maak van afkortings en emoticons.

Dit kan aanvaarbaar wees in 'n informele e-pos soos met 'n vriend. In 'n formele brief hoef jy egter nie vir iemand te sê dat jy "hardop lag nie", mense vind dit miskien onvanpas en kan voel dat hulle ligsinnig is. Sommige afkortings, soos "BTW" vir "By the Way", word gereeld in e-posse gebruik en is oor die algemeen aanvaarbaar, behalwe in formele, professionele e-posse.

JOB APPLICATION (THEORY) / AANSOEK VIR WERK (TEORIE)

Demonstrate an understanding of the job application process:

- Identifying an appropriate vacancy (advertisements in newspapers or online, criteria asked)
- Construct an application letter
- Complete an application form

Demonstreer begrip van die werksaansoek proses:

- Identifisering van 'n toepslike vakature (advertensies in koerante of aanlyn, kriteria gevra)
- Stel 'n aansoekbrief op
- Voltooi 'n aansoekvorm

Identify an appropriate vacancy (advertisements in newspapers or online, criteria asked)

How to identify a good or bad online job board

1. Look for clear and concise navigation instructions. Many "iffy" sites will post confusing or contradictory instructions
2. Look for built in security measures that protect each users account. Things like Captcha, etc
3. Beware of sites that charge a fee for job seekers. Many of these offer you very little in exchange for their fees
4. See if the Job postings are up to date. Some sites were set up solely for the purpose of driving traffic to another for profit site. These re-direct job boards are often neglected and not current.
5. Look for efficient and helpful job search features. A site that is obscure or unhelpful is a waste of your time and a potential scam haven. The following menu options will be standard on a legitimate site.
 - Resume search by employers,
 - Job notification,
 - Efficient content management system,
 - FREE resume submission,

- Resume alert for employers

6. Observe the types of advertisement. If the adds are for products, it may be legit... but if the adds are for multiple OTHER job search or opportunity sites... it should be a red flag that the site is primarily a phishing operation and not likely to be helpful to the serious job seeker.

Identifisering van 'n toepslike vakature (advertensies in koerante of aanlyn, kriteria gevra)

Hoe om 'n goeie of slegte werksbord te identifiseer

1. Soek duidelike en bondige navigasie-instruksies. Baie "iffy" webwerwe sal verwarrende of teenstrydige instruksies plaas.
2. Kyk na ingeboude veiligheidsmaatreëls wat elke gebruikersrekening beskerm. Dinge soos Captcha, ens.
3. Pasop vir webwerwe wat 'n fooi hef vir werksoekers. Baie hiervan bied u baie min in ruil vir hul fooie
4. Kyk of die posplasinge op datum is. Sommige webwerwe is slegs opgestel om die verkeer na 'n ander winsgewende werf te stuur. Hierdie her-direkte posrade word dikwels verwaarloos en nie op datum gehou nie.
5. Soek effektiewe en nuttige werksoekfunksies. 'n Webwerf wat onduidelik of onnuttig is, is 'n mors van u tyd en 'n moontlike bedrogspul. Die volgende menu-opsies is op 'n wettige webwerf standaard.
 - Hervat deursoeking deur werkgewers,
 - Kennisgewing van pos,
 - Doeltreffende inhoudbestuurstelsel,
 - GRATIS CV-indiening,
 - Hervat waarskuwing vir werkgewers
6. Kyk na die soorte advertensies. As die byvoegings/advertensies vir produkte is, kan dit wettig wees ... maar as die byvoegings vir veelvuldige ANDER werksoek- of geleentheidspersonele is, moet dit 'n rooi vlag wees dat die webwerf hoofsaaklik 'n uitvissing is en nie nuttig sal wees nie aan die ernstige werksoeker.

Divide symbol in Excel

The common way to do division is by using the divide sign. In mathematics, the operation of division is represented by an obelus symbol ($\div$). In Microsoft Excel, the divide symbol is a forward slash (/).

With this approach, you simply write an expression like $=a/b$ with no spaces, where:

- a is the dividend - a number you want to divide, and
- b is the divisor - a number by which the dividend is to be divided.

How to divide numbers in Excel

To divide two numbers in Excel, you type the equals sign (=) in a cell, then type the number to be divided, followed by a forward slash, followed by the number to divide by, and press the Enter key to calculate the formula.

For example, to divide 10 by 5, you type the following expression in a cell: $=10/5$

The screenshot below shows a few more examples of a simple division formula in Excel:

Verdeel simbool in Excel

Die algemene manier om verdeling te doen is deur die skeidingsteken te gebruik. In wiskunde word die werking van deling voorgestel deur 'n obelussimbool ($\div$). In Microsoft Excel is die skeidsimbool 'n skuinsstreep (/).

Met hierdie benadering skryf u eenvoudig 'n uitdrukking soos $= a / b$ sonder spasies, waar:

- a is die dividend - 'n getal wat u wil verdeel, en
- b is die verdeler - 'n getal waarmee die dividend verdeel moet word.

Hoe om getalle in Excel te verdeel

Om twee getalle in Excel te verdeel, tik u die gelykheidsteken (=) in 'n sel in, tik dan die getal wat verdeel moet word, gevolg deur 'n skuinsstreep, gevolg deur die getal om mee te deel en druk die Enter-toets om die formule te bereken.

Om byvoorbeeld 10 by 5 te deel, tik u die volgende uitdrukking in 'n sel in: $= 10/5$

Die onderstaande skermkiekie toon nog 'n paar voorbeelde van 'n eenvoudige indelingsformule in Excel:

	A	B
1	Formula	Result
2	=10/5	2
3	=10/5+27/3	11
4	=10/(2+3)*4	8

When a formula performs more than one arithmetic operation, it is important to remember about the order of calculations in Excel (PEMDAS): parentheses first, followed by exponentiation (raising to power), followed by multiplication or division whichever comes first, followed by addition or subtraction whichever comes first.

How to divide a cell in Excel

To divide two cells in Excel, you use the divide symbol exactly like shown in the above examples, but supply cell references instead of numbers.

For example:

- To divide cell A2 by 5: =A2/5
- To divide cell A2 by cell B2: =A2/B2
- To divide multiple cells successively, type cell references separated by the division symbol. For example, to divide the number in A2 by the number in B2, and then divide the result by the number in C2, use this formula: =A2/B2/C2

Wanneer 'n formule meer as een rekenkundige bewerking doen, is dit belangrik om te onthou oor die volgorde van berekeninge in Excel (PEMDAS): eerste hakies, gevolg deur eksponentiëring (verhoging tot krag), gevolg deur vermenigvuldiging of verdeling wat ook al eerste kom, gevolg deur optelling of aftrekking wat ook al eerste kom.

Hoe om 'n sel in Excel te verdeel

Om twee selle in Excel te verdeel, gebruik u die skeidsimbool presies soos in bostaande voorbeelde, maar verskaf selverwysings in plaas van getalle.

Byvoorbeeld:

- Om sel A2 deur 5 te deel: = A2 / 5
- Om sel A2 deur sel B2 te verdeel: = A2 / B2
- Om veelvuldige selle agter mekaar te verdeel, tik selverwysings wat geskei word deur die delingsimbool.

Byvoorbeeld, om die getal in A2 te deel deur die getal in B2, en dan die resultaat te deel deur die getal in C2, gebruik hierdie formule: = A2 / B2 / C2

	A	B	C	D
1	Number		Formula	Result
2	100		=A2/2	50
3	2		=A2/A3	50
4	5		=A2/A3/A4	10

Divide function in Excel (QUOTIENT)

I have to say plainly: there is no Divide function in Excel. Whenever you want to divide one number by another, use the division symbol as explained in the above examples.

However, if you want to return only the integer portion of a division and discard the remainder, then use the QUOTIENT function:

QUOTIENT(numerator, denominator)

Where:

- Numerator (required) - the dividend, i.e. the number to be divided.
- Denominator (required) - the divisor, i.e. the number to divide by.

When two numbers divide evenly without remainder, the division symbol and a QUOTIENT formula return the same result. For example, both $=10/5$ and $=\text{QUOTIENT}(10, 5)$ return 2.

When there is a remainder after division, the divide sign returns a decimal number and the QUOTIENT function returns only the integer part. For example, $=5/4$ returns 1.25 and $=\text{QUOTIENT}(5,4)$ yields 1.

Verdeel funksie in Excel (QUOTIENT)

Ek moet eenvoudig sê: daar is geen Divide-funksie in Excel nie. Gebruik die divisiesimbool soos uiteengesit in die voorbeelde hierbo, telkens as u een nommer deur 'n ander wil verdeel.

As u egter slegs die heelgetal van 'n afdeling wil teruggee en die res wil weggooi, gebruik dan die QUOTIENT-funksie:

QUOTIENT (teller, noemer)

waar:

- Teller (verpligtend) - die dividend, dit wil sê die getal wat verdeel moet word.
- Noemer (verpligtend) - die deler, dit wil sê die nommer om mee te deel.

As twee getalle eweredig verdeel sonder 'n res, gee die delingsimbool en 'n QUOTIENT-formule dieselfde resultaat. Byvoorbeeld, beide $= 10/5$ en $= \text{QUOTIENT} (10, 5)$ keer 2.

As daar 'n oorblywende deel is na die verdeling, gee die skeidingsteken 'n desimale getal en die QUOTIENT-funksie gee slegs die heelgetal. Byvoorbeeld, $= 5/4$ gee 1,25 en $= \text{QUOTIENT} (5,4)$ lewer 1.

Formula	Result
$=10/5$	2
$=\text{QUOTIENT}(10, 5)$	2
$=5/4$	1.25
$=\text{QUOTIENT}(5,4)$	1

3 things you should know about QUOTIENT function

As simple as it seems, the Excel QUOTIENT function still has a few caveats you should be aware of:

1. The numerator and denominator arguments should be supplied as numbers, references to cells containing numbers, or other functions that return numbers.

2. If either argument is non-numeric, a QUOTIENT formula returns the #VALUE! error.
3. If denominator is 0, QUOTIENT returns the divide by zero error (#DIV/0!).

How to divide columns in Excel

Dividing columns in Excel is also easy. It can be done by copying a regular division formula down the column or by using an array formula. Why would one want to use an array formula for a trivial task like that? You will learn the reason in a moment :)

How to divide two columns in Excel by copying a formula

To divide columns in Excel, just do the following:

1. Divide two cells in the topmost row, for example: =A2/B2
2. Insert the formula in the first cell (say C2) and double-click the small green square in the lower-right corner of the cell to copy the formula down the column. Done!

Since we use relative cell references (without the $ sign), our division formula will change based on a relative position of a cell where it is copied:

3 dinge wat u moet weet oor QUOTIENT-funksie

So eenvoudig soos wat dit lyk, het die Excel QUOTIENT-funksie nog 'n paar waarskuwings waarvan u bewus moet wees:

1. Die argumente van die teller en die noemer moet verskaf word as nommers, verwysings na selle wat getalle bevat, of ander funksies wat getalle teruggee.
2. As een van die argumente nie-numeries is nie, kan 'n QUOTIENT-formule die #VALUE! fout.
3. As die noemer 0 is, gee QUOTIENT die kloof met nulfout terug (# DIV / 0!).

Hoe om kolomme in Excel te verdeel

Dit is ook maklik om kolomme in Excel te deel. Dit kan gedoen word deur 'n reëlmatige indelingsformule in die kolom te kopieer of deur 'n skikkingsformule te gebruik. Waarom sou u 'n skikkingsformule wil gebruik vir so 'n triviale taak? U sal die rede binne 'n oomblik leer :)

Hoe om twee kolomme in Excel te verdeel deur 'n formule te kopieer

Doen die volgende om kolomme in Excel te verdeel:

1. Verdeel twee selle in die boonste ry, byvoorbeeld: = A2 / B2
2. Plaas die formule in die eerste sel (sê C2) en dubbelklik op die klein groen vierkant in die regteronderhoek van die sel om die formule in die kolom te kopieer. Gedoen!

Aangesien ons relatiewe selverwysings gebruik (sonder die $ -teken), sal ons indelingsformule verander op grond van 'n relatiewe posisie van 'n sel waar dit gekopieer word:

	A	B	C
1	Dividend	Divisor	Result
2	10	2	5
3	20	4	5
4	30	3	10
5	40	5	8
6	50	4	12.5
7	60	12	5
8	70	10	7

Tip. In a similar fashion, you can divide two rows in Excel. For example, to divide values in row 1 by values in row 2, you put `=A1/A2` in cell A3, and then copy the formula rightwards to as many cells as necessary.

How to divide one column by another with an array formula

In situations when you want to prevent accidental deletion or alteration of a formula in individual cells, insert an array formula in an entire range.

For example, to divide the values in cells A2:A8 by the values in B2:B8 row-by-row, use this formula: `=A2:A8/B2:B8`

To insert the array formula correctly, perform these steps:

1. Select the entire range where you want to enter the formula (C2:C8 in this example).
2. Type the formula in the formula bar and press Ctrl + Shift + Enter to complete it. As soon as you do this, Excel will enclose the formula in {curly braces}, indicating it's an array formula.

As the result, you will have the numbers in column A divided by the numbers in column B in one fell swoop. If someone tries to edit your formula in an individual cell, Excel will show a warning that part of an array cannot be changed.

To delete or modify the formula, you will need to select the whole range first, and then make the changes.

To extend the formula to new rows, select the entire range including new rows, change the cell references in the formula bar to accommodate new cells, and then press Ctrl + Shift + Enter to update the formula.

Punt. Op 'n soortgelyke manier kan u twee rye in Excel verdeel. Byvoorbeeld, om waardes in ry 1 te deel deur waardes in ry 2, plaas u `= A1 / A2` in sel A3, en kopieer die formule dan na soveel selle as wat nodig is.

Hoe u die een kolom met 'n ander formule kan verdeel

In situasies wanneer u per ongeluk die verwydering of verandering van 'n formule in individuele selle wil voorkom, plaas 'n skikkingformule in 'n hele reeks.

Byvoorbeeld, om die waardes in selle A2: A8 te deel deur die waardes in B2: B8 ry-vir-ry, gebruik hierdie formule: `= A2: A8 / B2: B8`

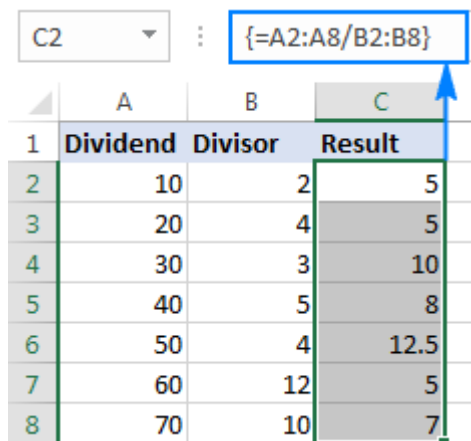

Voer die volgende stappe uit om die skikkingsformule korrek in te voeg:

1. Kies die volledige reeks waar u die formule wil invoer (C2: C8 in hierdie voorbeeld).

2. Tik die formule in die formulebalk en druk Ctrl + Shift + Enter om dit te voltooi. Sodra u dit doen, sal Excel die formule in {krullerige draadjies} omsluit, wat aandui dat dit 'n skikkingsformule is.

As gevolg hiervan, sal u die getalle in kolom A gedeel het deur die getalle in kolom B in een val. As iemand probeer om u formule in 'n individuele sel te wysig, sal Excel 'n waarskuwing toon dat 'n deel van 'n skikking nie verander kan word nie.

Om die formule te verwyder of te verander, moet u eers die hele reeks selekteer en dan die veranderinge aanbring. Om die formule uit te brei na nuwe rye, kies die hele reeks, insluitend nuwe rye, verander die selverwysings in die formulebalk om nuwe selle te akkommodeer, en druk dan Ctrl + Shift + Enter om die formule op te dateer.

The screenshot shows the Excel formula bar with the array formula `{=A2:A8/B2:B8}` entered. Below it, a table displays the results of dividing column A by column B for rows 2 through 8.

	A	B	C
1	Dividend	Divisor	Result
2	10	2	5
3	20	4	5
4	30	3	10
5	40	5	8
6	50	4	12.5
7	60	12	5
8	70	10	7

How to divide a column by a number in Excel

Depending on whether you want the output to be formulas or values, you can divide a column of numbers by a constant number by using a division formula or Paste Special feature.

Divide a column by number with a formula

As you already know, the fastest way to do division in Excel is by using the divide symbol. So, to divide each number in a given column by the same number, you put a usual division formula in the first cell, and then copy the formula down the column. That's all there is to it!

For example, to divide values in column A by the number 5, insert the following formula in A2, and then copy it down to as many cells as you want: `=A2/5`

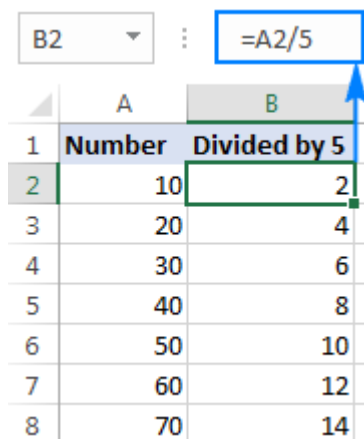

Hoe om 'n kolom deur 'n nommer in Excel te deel

Afhangend van of u die uitvoerformules of waardes wil hê, kan u 'n kolom met getalle deur 'n konstante getal verdeel deur 'n indelingsformule of Paste Special-funksie te gebruik.

Deel 'n kolom volgens getal met 'n formule

Soos u reeds weet, is die vinnigste manier om verdeling in Excel te doen deur die skeidsimbool te gebruik. Om elke getal in 'n gegewe kolom met dieselfde nommer te deel, plaas u 'n gewone formule in die eerste sel en kopieer die formule in die kolom. Dit is al wat daarvoor is!

Byvoorbeeld, om waardes in kolom A met die nommer 5 te deel, voeg die volgende formule in A2 in en kopieer dit dan na soveel selle as wat u wil: `= A2 / 5`

	A	B
1	Number	Divided by 5
2	10	2
3	20	4
4	30	6
5	40	8
6	50	10
7	60	12
8	70	14

As explained in the above example, the use of a relative cell reference (A2) ensures that the formula gets adjusted properly for each row. That is, the formula in B3 becomes =A3/5, the formula in B4 becomes =A4/5, and so on.

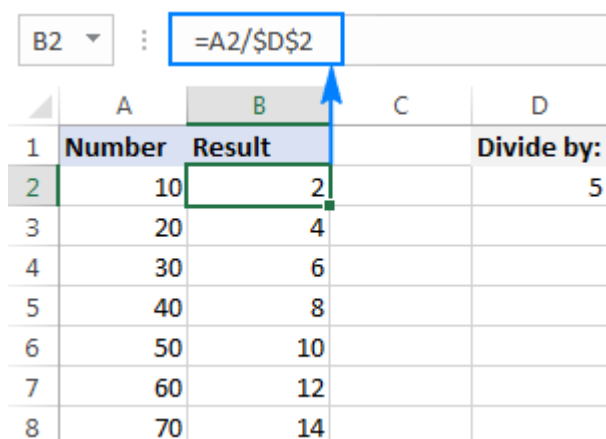

Instead of supplying the divisor directly in the formula, you can enter it in some cell, say D2, and divide by that cell. In this case, it's important that you lock the cell reference with the dollar sign (like $D$2), making it an absolute reference because this reference should remain constant no matter where the formula is copied.

As sho Soos in die voorbeeld hierbo verduidelik, verseker die gebruik van 'n relatiewe selverwysing (A2) dat die formule behoorlik aangepas word vir elke ry. Dit wil sê, die formule in B3 word = A3 / 5, die formule in B4 word = A4 / 5, ensovoorts.

In plaas daarvan om die verdeler direk in die formule te voorsien, kan u dit in een of ander sel invoer, sê D2, en deur daardie sel deel. In hierdie geval is dit belangrik dat u die selverwysing met die dollar-teken (soos $ D $ 2) sluit, en dit dus 'n absolute verwysing maak, omdat hierdie verwysing konstant moet bly, ongeag waar die formule gekopieer word.

Soos getoon in die onderstaande skermkiekie, gee die formule = A2 / $ D $ 2 presies dieselfde resultate as = A2 / 5.

wn in the screenshot below, the formula =A2/$D$2 returns exactly the same results as =A2/5.

	A	B	C	D
1	Number	Result		Divide by:
2	10	2		5
3	20	4
4	30	6
5	40	8
6	50	10
7	60	12
8	70	14

Divide a column by the same number with Paste Special

In case you want the results to be values, not formulas, you can do division in the usual way, and then replace formulas with values. Or, you can achieve the same result faster with the Paste Special > Divide option.

1. If you don't want to override the original numbers, copy them to the column where you want to have the results. In this example, we copy numbers from column A to column B.
2. Put the divisor in some cell, say D2, like shown in the screenshot below.
3. Select the divisor cell (D5), and press Ctrl + C to copy it to the clipboard.
4. Select the cells you want to multiply (B2:B8).
5. Press Ctrl + Alt + V, then I, which is the shortcut for Paste Special > Divide, and hit the Enter Deel 'n kolom met dieselfde nommer met Paste Special

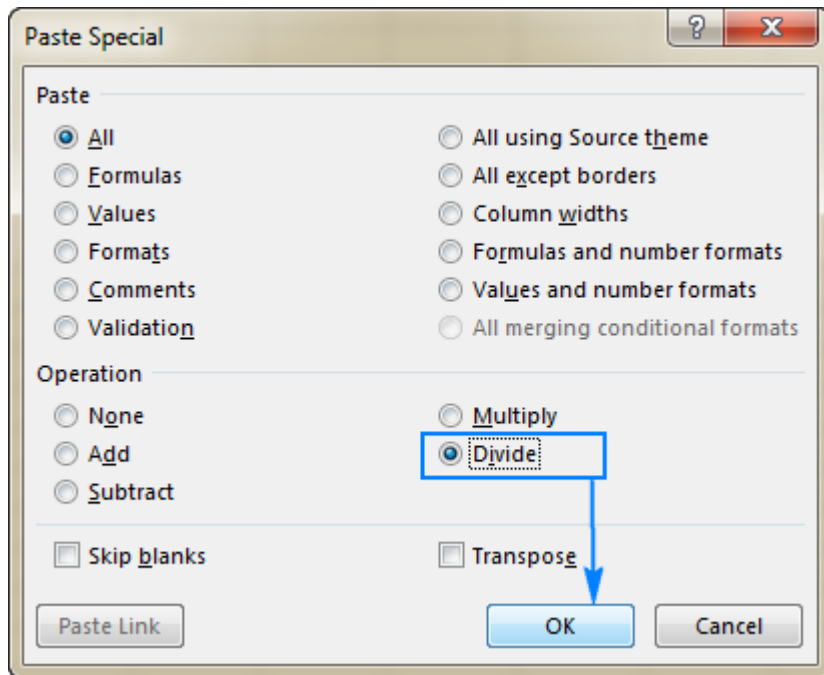

As u wil hê dat die resultate waardes is, nie formules nie, kan u op die gewone manier verdeling doen en dan formules vervang met waardes. Of jy kan dieselfde resultaat vinniger bereik met die Paste Special > Divideoption.

1. As u nie die oorspronklike nommers wil ignoreer nie, kopieer dit na die kolom waar u die resultate wil hê. In hierdie voorbeeld kopieer ons nommers van kolom A na kolom B.
2. Plaas die verdeler in 'n sel, sê D2, soos getoon in die skermkiekie hieronder.
3. Kies die delingsel (D5) en druk Ctrl + C om dit na die knipbord te kopieer.
4. Kies die selle wat u wil vermenigvuldig (B2: B8).
5. Druk Ctrl + Alt + V, dan op I, wat die kortpad is vir Paste Special > Divide, en druk op die Enter-toets.
6. key.

4	30	30
5	40	40
6	50	50
7	60	60
8	70	70

(1) [Ctrl+C] to copy the cell
 (2) [Ctrl + Alt + V], then I Paste Special >Divide

Alternatively, right-click the selected numbers, select Paste Special... from the context menu, then select Divide under Operation, and click OK.

Either way, each of the selected numbers in column A will be divided by the number in D5, and the results will be returned as values, not formulas:

Wrap Text

Wrap text in Excel if you want to display long text on multiple lines in a single cell. Wrap text automatically or enter a manual line break.

Wrap Text Automatically

1. For example, take a look at the long text string in cell A1 below. Cell B1 is empty.

Omsluit teks

Wikkel teks outomaties | Handlynlynbreek

Vou teks in Excel in as u lang teks op verskeie reëls in 'n enkele sel wil vertoon. Vou teks outomaties in of voer 'n handreëlbreuk in.

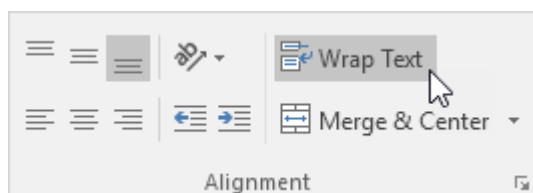

Wikkel teks outomaties

1. Kyk byvoorbeeld na die lang teksstring in sel A1 hieronder. Sel B1 is leeg.

A1

2. On the Home tab, in the Alignment group, click Wrap Text.

2. Klik op die tabblad Tuis in die groep Belyning.

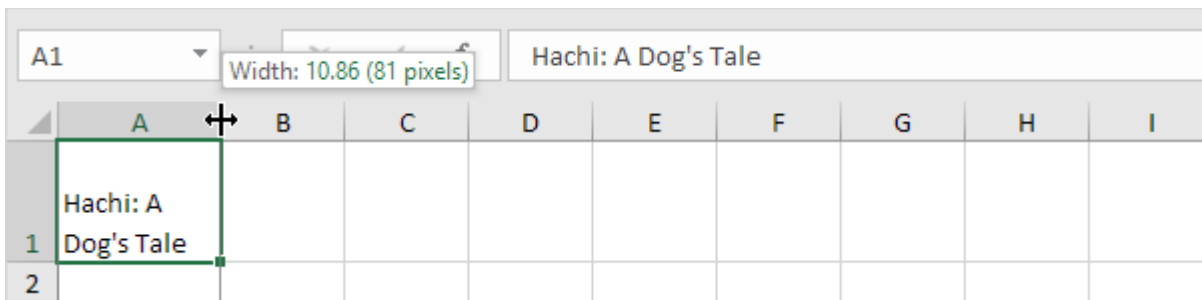

Result:

A1										✕			✓			fx			Hachi: A Dog's Tale
A										B										C										D										E										F										G										H										I
Hachi: A
Dog's
Tale

3. Click on the right border of the column A header and drag the separator to increase the column width.

3. Klik op die regterkant van die kolom A-kop en sleep die skeier om die kolomwydte te verhoog.

4. Double click the bottom border of the row 1 header to automatically adjust the row height.

4. Dubbelklik op die onderste rand van die ry 1 kop om die ryhoogte outomaties aan te pas.

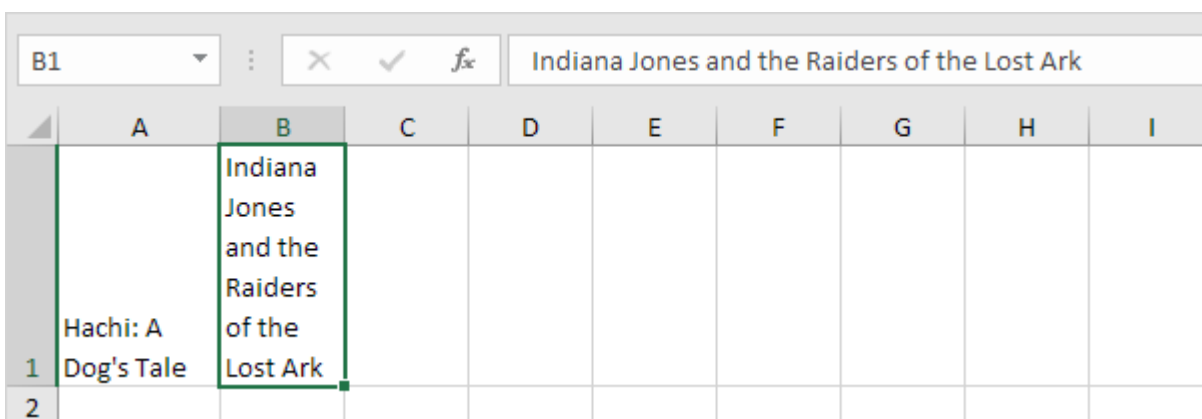

Note: if you manually set a row height (by clicking on the bottom border of a row header and dragging the separator), Excel does not change the row height when you click the Wrap Text button. Simply double click the bottom border of a row header to fix this.

4. Enter an extra-long text string in cell B1 and wrap the text in this cell.

Opmerking: as u 'n ryhoogte handmatig instel (deur op die onderste rand van 'n rykop te klik en die skeier te sleep), verander Excel nie die ryhoogte wanneer u op die Wrap Text-knoppie klik nie. Dubbelklik eenvoudig op die onderste rand van 'n ryopskrif om dit reg te stel.

5. Voer 'n ekstra lang teksstring in sel B1 in en draai die teks in hierdie sel in.

Note: by default, Excel aligns text to the bottom (see cell A1).

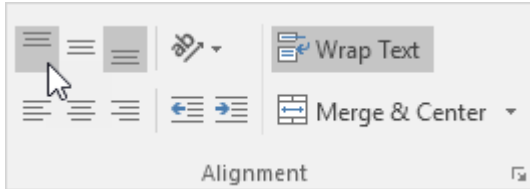

6. Select cell A1.

7. On the Home tab, in the Alignment group, click Top Align.

Opmerking: Excel is teks standaard onderaan (sien sel A1).

6. Kies sel A1.

7. Klik op die tuisblad, in die groep Alignment, op Top Align.

Result:

A1		Hachi: A Dog's Tale

Manual Line Break

To insert a manual line break, execute the following steps.

1. For example, double click cell A1.
2. Place your cursor at the location where you want the line to break.

Handlynlynbreek

Voer die volgende stappe uit om 'n handreëlbreuk in te voeg.

1. Dubbelklik byvoorbeeld op sel A1.
2. Plaas u wyser op die plek waar u wil hê dat die lyn moet breek.

Note: to remove a manual line break, double click a cell, place your cursor at the beginning of the line and press Backspace.

Opmerking: om 'n handreëlbreuk te verwyder, dubbelklik op 'n sel, plaas u muis aan die begin van die reël en druk op Terugruimte

Align a column, or row

1. Select a column, or row.
2. Select Align Left, Center, or Align Right.
3. Select Top Align, Middle Align, or Bottom Align.

Align cells in a workbook

1. Click a cell, or press Ctrl + A to select all cells.
2. Select Align Left, Center, or Align Right.

3. Select Top Align, Middle Align, or Bottom Align.

Rotate text

1. Select a cell, row, column, or a range.
2. Click Orientation, and then select an option.

You can rotate your text up, down, clockwise, or counterclockwise, or align text vertically.

Rig 'n kolom of ry

1. Kies 'n kolom of ry.
2. Kies Rig links, in die middel of regs in lyn.
3. Kies Hoogste lyn, middellyn of onderaan lyn.

Rig selle in 'n werkboek in

1. Klik op 'n sel of druk Ctrl + A om alle selle te selekteer.
2. Kies Rig links, in die middel of regs in lyn.
3. Kies Hoogste lyn, middellyn of onderaan lyn.

Draai teks

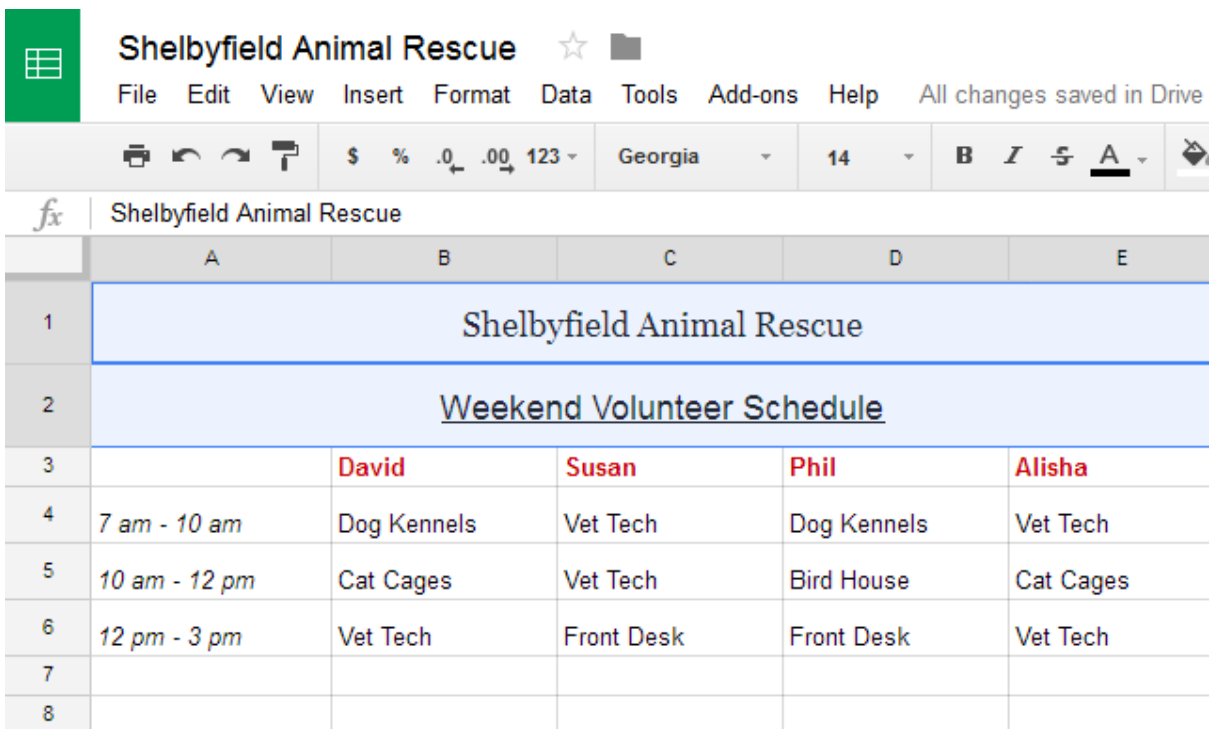

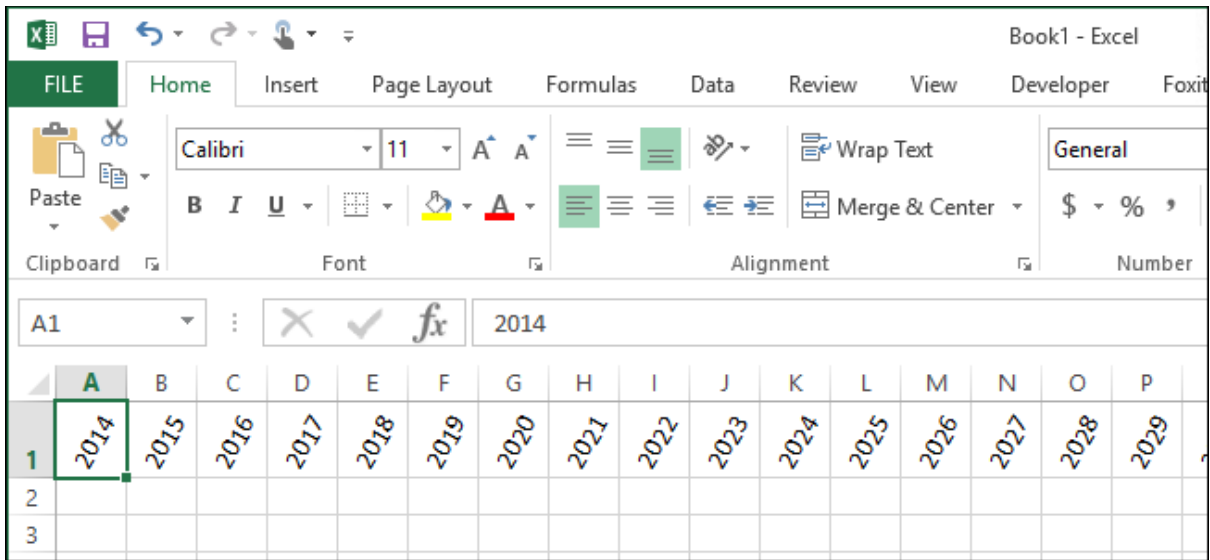

1. Kies 'n sel, ry, kolom of 'n reeks.
2. Klik op Oriëntering en kies dan 'n opsie.

U kan u teks op, af, met die kloksgewys of linksom draai, of die teks vertikaal in lyn bring

Job application process

Decide what kind of job you want. In order to streamline the job application process, examine what your needs and desires are for employment. You can narrow down your options by taking a few things into consideration:

- Consider the career field. Whether you are transitioning from another field or are looking to make a lateral move, it is important to find work that is both challenging and rewarding for you. Knowing what you don't want to do is just as important and knowing what you do want to do.
- Consider the skills required for a particular position. Feeling like your skills are being well utilized and acknowledged is key to feeling satisfaction at a job. Having an idea about which of your skills will be tapped, and which you will be able to develop, is key to deciding on a worthwhile job. These skills will help you become an amazing worker the company is looking for.
- Consider your salary and benefit requirements. Be honest and realistic about your bottom line. If you need health coverage and require a certain amount of income per month, it is best to home in on jobs that fulfill those requirements.

Besluit watter soort werk u wil hê. Ondersoek wat u behoeftes en begeertes vir indiensneming is om die werksaansoekproses te stroomlyn. U kan u opsies verklein deur 'n paar dinge in ag te neem:

- Oorweeg die loopbaanveld. Of u nou van 'n ander veld oorgaan of 'n sywaartse skuif wil doen, dit is belangrik om werk te vind wat uitdagend en lonend is vir u. Om net te weet wat u nie wil doen nie, is net so belangrik en om te weet wat u wil doen.
- Oorweeg die vaardighede wat nodig word vir 'n spesifieke posisie. Die gevoel dat u vaardighede goed benut en erken word, is die sleutel tot tevredenheid by u werk. Om 'n idee te hê oor watter vaardighede aangewend gaan word en wat u kan ontwikkel, is die sleutel tot die besluit oor 'n waardige werk. Hierdie vaardighede sal u help om 'n ongelooflike werker te word waarna die onderneming op soek is.
- Oorweeg u salaris- en voordeelvereistes. Wees eerlik en realisties oor u kernpunt. As u gesondheidsdekking nodig en 'n sekere hoeveelheid inkomste per maand nodig, is dit die beste om werkseleenthede in te vul wat aan hierdie vereistes voldoen.

Do your research. Before you begin sending out resumes and cover letters en masse, look into the companies you are applying for.^[1]

- Get a sense of the company's personality and values by reading its mission statement. This information can come in handy when writing your cover letter and in an interview situation.
- Read up on new products or services the company is providing. This information is often located in the company's "news" section. This section can also be a source of information on community activities the company is involved in.
- Review the jobs or careers section of the company website for insight into job openings. You may find more options for employment in other departments or locations

Doen u navorsing. Voordat u met groot hoeveelhede CV's en dekbriewe begin uitstuur, kyk na die ondernemings waarvoor u aansoek doen. [1]

- Lees die missieverklaring van die onderneming se persoonlikheid en waardes. Hierdie inligting kan handig te pas kom tydens die skryf van u dekbrief en in 'n onderhoudsituasie.
- Lees meer oor nuwe produkte of dienste wat die onderneming lewer. Hierdie inligting word dikwels in die nuusafdeling van die onderneming gevind. Hierdie afdeling kan ook 'n bron wees van inligting oor gemeenskapsaktiwiteite waarby die onderneming betrokke is.
- Bestudeer die afdeling vir werkseleenthede of loopbane op die bedryfswebwerf vir insig in werkseleenthede. U kan meer werkseleenthede in ander departemente of plekke vind

Write a resume. Even if the job you want doesn't require the submission of a traditional resume, having an up-to-date resume is highly recommended. Resumes not only outline your education and work history, but they can also point to specific projects you've worked on or awards you've won.^[3] Information to include on your resume should entail:

- Your current contact information, including your full name, phone number, mailing address, and email address.
- Your educational background. List the colleges you have attended (beginning with your most recent), the year you attended, and any degrees or certificates earned. You may opt to include your course of study.
- Your work history for the past few years. The unofficial rule is one resume page per ten years of experience. Be aware that large gaps in employment, or multiple jobs within a short amount of time, will be something you may be asked about in an interview. Be sure to include dates of employment, the company name, your title, and a brief description of your activities.

- Your relevant skills. This is your chance to list all the skills you have acquired through the years. Knowledge of office equipment, familiarity with computer operating systems, software programs (such as Microsoft Office Suite or Adobe Creative Suite), typing speed, database experience, and other relevant information should be included in your resume.

Skryf 'n CV. Selfs al hoef u nie 'n tradisionele CV in te dien nie, moet u 'n bygewerkte CV hervat. Hervatings skets nie net u onderwys- en werkgeskiedenis nie, maar dit kan ook wys op spesifieke projekte waaraan u gewerk het of toekennings waaraan u gewen het. [3] Inligting wat u CV moet insluit, moet die volgende insluit:

- U huidige kontakinligting, insluitend u volle naam, telefoonnommer, posadres en e-posadres.
- U opvoedkundige agtergrond. Maak 'n lys van die kolleges wat u bygewoon het (begin met u nuutste), die jaar wat u bygewoon het, en alle grade of sertifikate wat u verdien het. U kan kies om u kursus in te sluit.
- U werksgeskiedenis vir die afgelope paar jaar. Die nie-amptelike reël is een hervat bladsy per tien jaar ondervinding. Wees bewus daarvan dat groot leemtes in werkgeleenthede, of veelvuldige werkgeleenthede binne 'n kort tydjie, iets sal wees waaroor u in 'n onderhoud gevra kan word. U moet seker maak dat u werkdatums, die maatskappy se naam, u titel en 'n kort beskrywing van u aktiwiteite insluit.
- U relevante vaardighede. Dit is u kans om al die vaardighede wat u deur die jare aangeleer het, te lys. Kennis van kantoortoerusting, vertroudheid met rekenaarbestuurstelsels, sagtewareprogramme (soos Microsoft Office Suite of Adobe Creative Suite), tikspoed, databasisondervinding en ander relevante inligting moet in u CV ingesluit word.

Contact the employer to ask about the application process. You will likely have your call routed to the hiring or human resources manager. If they have openings, they may ask you to either come in to fill out an application or that you send them your resume and cover letter by mail or e-mail. Be sure to note this contact's name, and address all future communication to this person, by name.^[4]

Write a cover letter, if necessary. Make sure it is specific to both the company and the job. If possible, address the contact letter to a specific contact person. This demonstrates that you took the time to research the information and are not simply mass-emailing every employer you can find.^[5] Consider discussing the following topics in your cover letter:

- How the company's personality and mission align with your own values.
- How your background makes you a valuable asset to the role and to the company.
- What it is you hope to gain from working in this role.
- What unique talents would you bring to this position?
- What specifically interests you about this position.

Skryf 'n CV. Selfs al hoef u nie 'n tradisionele CV in te dien nie, moet u 'n bygewerkte CV hervat. Hervatings skets nie net u onderwys- en werkgeskiedenis nie, maar dit kan ook wys op spesifieke projekte waaraan u gewerk het of toekennings waaraan u gewen het. [3] Inligting wat u CV moet insluit, moet die volgende insluit:

- U huidige kontakinligting, insluitend u volle naam, telefoonnommer, posadres en e-posadres.
- U opvoedkundige agtergrond. Maak 'n lys van die kolleges wat u bygewoon het (begin met u nuutste), die jaar wat u bygewoon het, en alle grade of sertifikate wat u verdien het. U kan kies om u kursus in te sluit.
- U werksgeskiedenis vir die afgelope paar jaar. Die nie-amptelike reël is een hervat bladsy per tien jaar ondervinding. Wees bewus daarvan dat groot leemtes in werkgeleenthede, of veelvuldige werkgeleenthede binne 'n kort tydjie, iets sal wees waaroor u in 'n onderhoud gevra kan word. U moet seker maak dat u werkdatums, die maatskappy se naam, u titel en 'n kort beskrywing van u aktiwiteite insluit.
- U relevante vaardighede. Dit is u kans om al die vaardighede wat u deur die jare aangeleer het, te lys. Kennis van kantoortoerusting, vertroudheid met rekenaarbestuurstelsels, sagtewareprogramme (soos Microsoft Office Suite of Adobe Creative Suite), tikspoed, databasisondervinding en ander relevante inligting moet in u CV ingesluit word.

Get a second (or third) opinion. Ask friends or family members to review your resume and cover letter for typos. They may be able to point out things that are missing, or items that could be rephrased. ^[6]

- If possible, get advice from someone working in the field you are applying for. Speaking to recruiters or hiring managers may be beneficial as well, as they are familiar with the qualities and qualifications employers are looking for.

Locate references. Though you may not have to provide a list of references right away, it is wise to tap people early to ask whether they would consider being a professional reference for you.

- It is recommended that you secure at least three references. At least two of these references should be people whom you have worked with and who can speak to your job performance.
- Be sure you have your references' updated contact information, including mailing and email addresses, phone number, current title, and current company. ^[7]

Kry 'n tweede (of derde) mening. Vra vriende of familieleden om u CV en dekbrief na te gaan vir tikfoute. Hulle kan moontlik dinge wat ontbreek, of items wat herformuleer kan word, uitwys. [6]

- Indien moontlik, kry advies van iemand wat werk in die veld waarvoor u aansoek doen. Praat met werwers of huurbestuurders kan ook voordelig wees, omdat hulle vertrouwd is met die kwaliteite en kwalifikasies waarna werkgevers soek.

Soek verwysings. Alhoewel u miskien nie dadelik 'n lys met verwysings hoef te verskaf nie, is dit verstandig om vroeg op mense te tik om te vra of hulle 'n professionele verwysing vir u sal oorweeg.

- Daar word aanbeveel dat u ten minste drie verwysings kry. Ten minste twee van hierdie verwysings moet mense wees met wie u gewerk het en wat kan praat met u werkprestasie.
- Sorg dat u bygewerkte kontakinligting oor u verwysings het, insluitend pos- en e-posadresse, telefoonnommer, huidige titel en huidige maatskappy

Apply. Once you have fine-tuned your resume and cover letter, it is time to begin the application process. Applications are typically submitted in one of three ways:

- In person. Bring a packet containing all your materials to the prospective employer's workplace. It is recommended that you ask ahead of time for the best time to deliver your materials. When you arrive, ask to speak to the hiring manager and try to hand your materials to them personally. This allows the hiring manager to put a face to the name. It is recommended that you dress professionally and present yourself well.
- Online. Online applications vary--some may ask you to fill in fields, while others may require that you attach PDFs of your cover letter and resume. Some companies request that you email your materials to their Human Resources department. It is important to follow directions--if they ask that you send your resume in the body of the email, do not send an attachment!
- By mail. If requested, be sure to include the name of the hiring or HR manager on all of the correspondence. make sure that you have the proper postage for the weight of your application packet.
- Toe te pas. Nadat u u CV en dekbrieffyn aangepas het, is dit tyd om die aansoekproses te begin. Aansoeke word gewoonlik op een van drie maniere ingedien:
 - Persoonlik. Bring 'n pakkie met al u materiaal na die werkplek van die voornemende werkgever. Dit word aanbeveel dat u vooraf vra vir die beste tyd om u materiaal af te lewer. Wanneer u opdaag, vra om met die huurbestuurder te praat en probeer om u materiaal persoonlik aan hulle oor te gee. Dit stel die huurbestuurder in staat om 'n gesig na die naam te bring. Dit word aanbeveel dat u professioneel aantrek en u goed aanbied.
 - Online. Aanlyn-toepassings verskil - sommige kan u vra om velde in te vul, terwyl ander mag vereis dat u PDF's van u dekbrieffyn aangeheg en hervat. Sommige ondernemings versoek u om u materiaal per e-pos aan hul afdeling Menslike Hulpbronne te stuur. Dit is belangrik om aanwysings te volg - as hulle vra dat u u CV in die liggaam van die e-pos stuur, moet u nie 'n aanhangsel stuur nie!
 - Deur pos. As u dit versoek, moet u die naam van die huur- of HR-bestuurder op al die korrespondensie insluit. Maak seker dat u die regte posgeld vir die gewig van u aansoekpakket het. Follow up. Checking on the status of your application shows your interest in the position and ensures that your application materials have made it to the appropriate person. Calling right away can seem demanding and off-putting. Follow these suggestions for reaching out:

- Pay attention to job "close date." Most jobs posted online will have a posted closing date. Calling the hiring manager before this date can make you seem overly eager and desperate.
- If there is no close date, a good rule of thumb is to make contact one week after application submission.
- When you do call or email the hiring or HR manager, try to make the tone of your communication friendly. Avoid demanding comments like, "I haven't been contacted yet." Instead, ask questions such as "Have any decisions been made yet?" or "Can you tell me a little more about the hiring time frame?" Asking if you might contact them again in one week if no word has been given is a polite way to be proactive. [\[8\]](#)

Volg op. As u die status van u aansoek nagaan, toon u belangstelling in die posisie en verseker dat u aansoekmateriaal dit aan die toepaslike persoon gebring het. Om dadelik te bel kan veeleisend en beledigend lyk. Volg hierdie voorstelle om uit te reik:

- Let op die "sluitingsdatum" vir die werk. Die meeste poste wat aanlyn geplaas word, sal 'n sluitingsdatum hê. As u die huurbestuurder voor hierdie datum skakel, kan u te gretig en desperaat lyk.
- As daar geen sluitingsdatum is nie, is dit 'n goeie reël dat u een week na die indiening van die aansoek kontak maak.
- As u die huur- of personeelsbestuurder skakel of per e-pos stuur, probeer om die toon van u kommunikasievriendelik te maak. Vermy veeleisende opmerkings soos "Ek is nog nie gekontak nie." Stel eerder vrae soos "Is daar nog besluite geneem?" of "Kan u my 'n bietjie meer vertel oor die tydraamwerk vir huur?" Vra of u binne een week weer met hulle kan kontak maak as daar geen woord gegee is nie, is 'n beleefde manier om proaktief te wees

Client services and communication / Kliëntediens en kommunikasie

Demonstrate an understanding of the job application process:

- The interview
 - * Appearance and preparation
 - * Possible questions
 - * Conduct and etiquette during interview

Demonstreer 'n begrip van die werksaansoekproses:

- Die onderhoud
 - * Voorkoms en voorbereiding
 - * Moontlike vrae
 - * Gedrag en etiket tydens onderhoud

Appearance and preparation

Plan your interview attire the night before. If you're speaking to a recruiter before the interview, you can ask them about the dress code in the workplace and choose your outfit accordingly. If you don't have someone to ask, research the company to learn what's appropriate.

An interview may be the only shot you have to impress the decision-maker in person, so make sure you're dressed impeccably.

It's always better to overdress than underdress, but do some sleuthing and find out what the corporate dress culture is before you walk through the door. A dark suit (jacket and pants or skirt) and a crisp white shirt, manicured nails, simple make-up, and clean, professional shoes will be perfect in most cases. And, definitely avoid dangling earrings, too much perfume, and multiple, clanking bracelets.

Voorkoms en voorbereiding

Beplan u uitrusting die vorige aand. As u voor die onderhoud met 'n werwer praat, kan u hulle vra oor die kleredragkode in die werkplek en u kledingstuk dan kies. As u nie iemand het om te vra nie, doen navorsing oor die onderneming om te leer wat geskik is.

'n Onderhoud is miskien die enigste foto wat u moet neem om die besluitnemer persoonlik te beïndruk, dus maak seker dat u onberispelik aangetrek is.

Dit is altyd beter om te oorklee as onderklee, maar doen 'n bietjie navorsing en bepaal wat die kleredrag van die onderneming is voordat jy deur die deur loop. In die meeste gevalle is 'n donker pak (baadjie en broek of romp) en 'n skerp wit hemp, versorgde naels, eenvoudige grimering en skoon, professionele skoene perfek. En vermy beslis hangende oorbelle, te veel parfuim en veelvuldige armbandjies.

8 Things to ALWAYS Say in an Interview

In your lifetime, you will probably have to prepare for lots and lots of job interviews. Every interview is different because every job and every interviewer is different. That being said, there are a few things that rarely change when it comes to job interviews.

Here are eight things you should always say (and mean) in an interview:

8 dinge om ALTYD in 'n onderhoud te sê

In u leeftyd sal u waarskynlik moet voorberei vir baie werksonderhoude. Elke onderhoud is anders, want elke werk en elke onderhoudvoerder is anders. Dit gesê, is daar 'n paar dinge wat selde verander as dit kom by werksonderhoude.

Hier is agt dinge wat u altyd in 'n onderhoud moet sê (en bedoel):

1. You know the company really well.

Show the interviewer you've done your research by talking about your knowledge of the company. Weave this knowledge throughout your responses, and the interviewer will see your true interest company.

U ken die onderneming regtig goed.

Toon aan die onderhoudvoerder dat u navorsing gedoen het deur te praat oor u kennis van die onderneming. Weef hierdie kennis deur u antwoorde, en die onderhoudvoerder sal u ware belangstelling in die onderneming sien.

2. You have the experience to do the job.

Every interviewer is going to ask about your experience. Use this question as your opportunity to prove you have the ability to do the job. Explain that your success with a previous project will allow you to successfully do something else for this company. Prove your worth.

U het die ervaring om die werk te doen.

Elke onderhoudvoerder gaan navraag doen oor u ervaring. Gebruik hierdie vraag as u geleentheid om te bewys dat u die vermoë het om die werk te doen. Verduidelik dat u sukses met 'n vorige projek u in staat stel om iets anders vir hierdie onderneming suksesvol te doen. Bewys u waarde.

3. You work well with others.

The ability to work in a team is one of the qualities employers want most. An interviewer wants to hear how you have worked in a team in the past and how your team succeeded. Explain what your role on the team was and how you contributed to the team's success. Companies want to create teams that can manage themselves and produce strong results.

U werk goed saam met ander.

Die vermoë om in 'n span te werk is een van die eienskappe wat werkgevers die meeste wil hê. 'n Onderhoudvoerder wil hoor hoe u in 'n span in die verlede gewerk het en hoe u span suksesvol was. Verduidelik wat u rol in die span was en hoe u bygedra het tot die sukses van die span. Maatskappye wil spanne skep wat hulself kan bestuur en sterk resultate kan lewer.

4. You are constantly seeking to learn.

Employers want to know you're open to adapting and learning new methods. Talk about your willingness to continue learning more about your industry.

U probeer voortdurend leer.

Werkgevers wil weet dat u oop is vir die aanpassing en aanleer van nuwe metodes. Praat oor u bereidwilligheid om meer te leer oor u bedryf.

5. You are motivated.

When you use the word "motivated" to describe yourself, you are expressing a few things to your interviewer. First, you have a desire to help the company do well. Second, you are a productive worker. Both of these things show employers they can count on you to do your job.

Jy is gemotiveerd.

As u die woord 'gemotiveerd' gebruik om uself te beskryf, spreek u 'n paar dinge aan u onderhoudvoerder uit. Eerstens dat u die begeerte het om die onderneming te help om goed te doen. Tweedens, u is 'n produktiewe werker. Albei hierdie dinge wys werkgewers dat hulle op u kan staatmaak om u werk te doen.

6. You are excited about this job.

An excited candidate is one who won't take the job for granted. "Excited" says, "I really want the job and will do my best when I get it." Excitement demonstrates your optimism.

U is opgewonde oor hierdie werk.

'n Opgewonde kandidaat is iemand wat die pos nie as vanselfsprekend sal aanvaar nie. 'Opgewonde' sê, 'ek wil regtig die werk hê en sal my bes doen as ek dit regkry.' Opgewondenheid demonstreer u optimisme.

7. You have a plan.

The most important objective in your interview is to demonstrate how you will benefit the company (not how they will benefit you).

U het 'n plan.

Die belangrikste doelwit in u onderhoud is om te demonstreer hoe u die onderneming sal bevoordeel (nie hoe dit u sal baat nie).

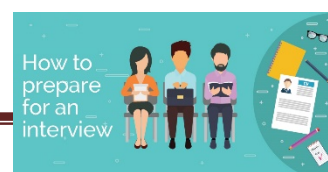

8. You want to build a career in the company.

This is sort of a bonus because it may not always be true going into an interview. But, if you know you want to build a career in the company, say so in your interview. Your interviewer wants to know you're invested in the company and you don't have plans to move on quickly.

U wil 'n loopbaan in die onderneming bou.

Dit is soort van 'n bonus, want dit is nie altyd as mens vir die onderhoud gaan nie. Maar as u weet dat u 'n loopbaan in die onderneming wil bou, sê dit in u onderhoud. U onderhoudvoerder wil weet dat u in die onderneming belê het en dat u nie planne het om vinnig aan te beweeg nie.

10 Interview Questions and Best Answers

10 Onderhoudsvrae en beste antwoorde

1. Tell me about yourself.

What They Want to Know: The interviewer wants to know why you're an excellent fit for the job. Sharing some of your personal interests and experiences that don't relate directly to work, such as a favourite hobby or a brief account of where you grew up, your education and what motivates you.

Vertel my van jouself.

Wat hulle wil weet: Die onderhoudvoerder wil weet hoekom u perfek geskik is vir die werk. U kan begin deur van u persoonlike belangstellings en ervarings wat nie direk met werk verband hou nie, te deel, soos 'n gunsteling stokperdjie of 'n kort weergawe van waar u grootgeword het, u opleiding en wat u motiveer.

2. Why should we hire you?

What They Want to Know: Are you the best candidate for the job? The hiring manager wants to know whether you have all the required qualifications. Be prepared to explain why you're the applicant who should be hired. Make your response a confident, concise, focused sales pitch that explains what you have to offer and why you should get the job.

Waarom moet ons u aanstel?

Wat hulle wil weet: Is u die beste kandidaat vir die pos? Die aanstellingsbestuurder wil weet of u al die vereiste kwalifikasies het. Wees bereid om te verduidelik waarom u die aansoeker is wat aangestel moet word. Maak u reaksie 'n selfversekerde, bondige, gefokusde verkooppunt wat verduidelik wat u kan bied en waarom u die werk moet kry.

3. What is your greatest strength?

What They Want to Know: This is one of the questions that employers almost always ask to determine how well you are qualified for the position. When you are asked about your greatest strengths, it's important to discuss the attributes that qualify you for that specific job, and that will set you apart from other candidates.

Wat is u sterkste eienskap?

Wat hulle wil weet: Dit is een van die vrae wat werkgewers byna altyd vra om vas te stel hoe goed u gekwalifiseer is vir die pos. As u gevra word oor u grootste sterk punte, is dit belangrik om die eienskappe te bespreek wat u kwalifiseer vir daardie spesifieke pos, en dit sal u van ander kandidate onderskei.

4. What is your greatest weakness?

What They Want to Know: Another typical question interviewers will ask is about your weaknesses. Do your best to frame your answers around positive aspects of your skills and abilities as an employee, turning seeming "weaknesses" into strengths. You can also share examples of skills you have improved, providing specific instances of how you have recognized a weakness and taken steps to correct it.

Wat is u grootste swakheid?

Wat hulle wil weet: 'n Ander tipiese vraag wat onderhoudvoerders vra, is oor u swakhede. Doen u bes om u antwoorde rondom positiewe aspekte van u vaardighede en vermoëns as werknemer te raam, en laat dit lyk asof u 'swak punte' in sterk punte vorm. U kan ook voorbeelde deel van vaardighede wat u verbeter het, deur spesifieke gevalle te gee van hoe u 'n swakheid erken het en stappe gedoen het om dit reg te stel.

5. Why do you want to leave (or have left) your current job?

What They Want to Know: The interviewer wants to know why you want to work for their company. When asked about why you are moving on from your current position, stick with the facts, be direct and focus your answer on the future, especially if your departure wasn't under the best circumstances.

Waarom wil u u huidige werk verlaat (of verlaat het)?

Wat hulle wil weet: Die onderhoudvoerder wil weet waarom u vir hul onderneming wil werk. As u gevra word waarom uit u huidige posisie wil gaan, hou by die feite, wees direk en fokus u antwoord op die toekoms, veral as u vertrek nie onder die beste omstandighede was nie.

6. What are your salary expectations?

What They Want to Know: The hiring manager wants to know what you expect to earn. It seems like a simple question, but your answer can knock you out of competition for the job if you overprice yourself. If you underprice yourself, you may get shortchanged with a lower offer.

Wat is u salarisverwagtinge?

Wat hulle wil weet: Die aanstellingsbestuurder wil weet wat u verwag om te verdien. Dit klink na 'n eenvoudige vraag, maar u antwoord kan u uit die kompetisie vir die werk uitslaan as u uself te veel prys. As u uself onderprys, kan u dalk met 'n laer aanbod verkort word.

7. Why do you want this job?

What They Want to Know: This question gives you an opportunity to show the interviewer what you know about the job and the company, so take time beforehand to thoroughly research the company, its products, services, culture and mission. Be specific about what makes you a good fit for this role, and mention aspects of the company and position that appeal to you most.

Waarom wil u hierdie werk hê?

Wat hulle wil weet: Hierdie vraag gee u die geleentheid om die onderhoudvoerder te wys wat u van die werk en die onderneming weet, en neem dus vooraf tyd om die onderneming, sy produkte, dienste, kultuur en missie deeglik na te vors. Wees spesifiek oor waarom u geskik is vir hierdie rol, en noem aspekte van die onderneming en posisie wat u die meeste aanlok.

8. How do you handle stress and pressure?

What They Want to Know: What do you do when things don't go smoothly at work? How do you deal with difficult situations? The employer wants to know how you handle workplace stress. Avoid claiming that you never, or rarely, experience stress. Rather, formulate your answer in a way that acknowledges workplace stress and explains how you've overcome it, or even used it to your advantage.

Hoe hanteer jy spanning en druk?

Wat hulle wil weet: Wat doen jy as dinge nie vlot verloop nie? Hoe hanteer jy moeilike situasies? Die werkgever wil weet hoe u werkplekstres hanteer. Vermy om te beweer dat u nooit, of selde, stres ervaar nie. Formuleer eerder u antwoord op 'n manier wat stres in die werkplek erken, en verduidelik hoe u dit oorkom het, of selfs tot u voordeel gebruik het.

9. Describe a difficult work situation or project and how you overcame it.

What They Want to Know: The interviewer wants to know how you respond when faced with a difficult decision. As with the question about stress, be prepared to share an example of what you did in a tough situation. It's important to share details to make the story believable and engaging.

Beskryf 'n moeilike werksituasie of projek en hoe u dit oorkom het.

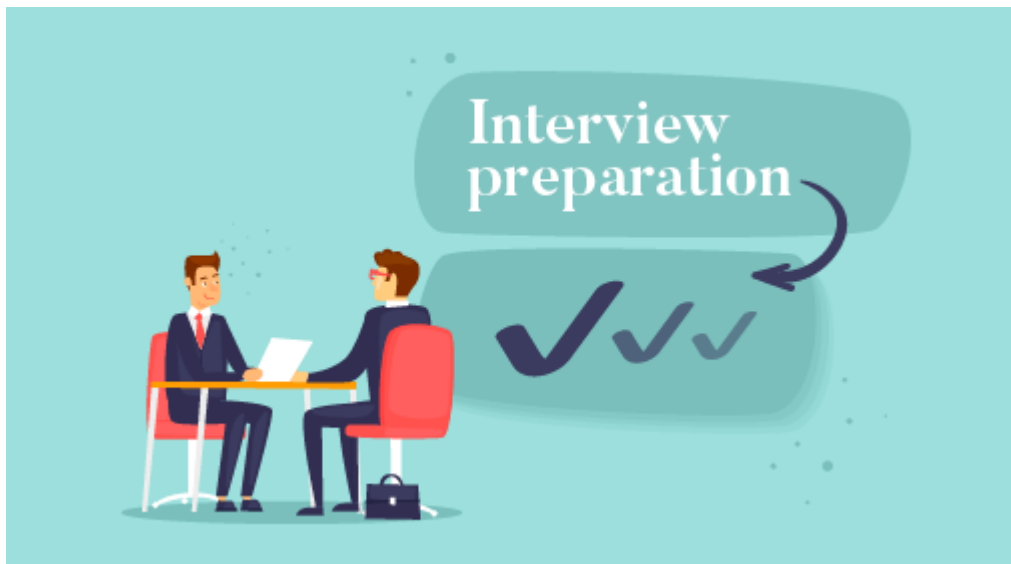

Wat hulle wil weet: Die onderhoudvoerder wil weet hoe u reageer as u 'n moeilike besluit moet neem. Soos met die vraag oor stres, wees bereid om 'n voorbeeld te deel van wat u in 'n moeilike situasie gedoen het. Dit is belangrik om besonderhede te deel om die verhaal geloofwaardig en boeiend te maak.

10. What are your goals for the future?

What They Want to Know: This question is designed to find out if you're going to stick around or move on as soon as you find a better opportunity. Keep your answer focused on the job and the company, and reiterate to the interviewer that the position aligns with your long-term goals.

Wat is u doelwitte vir die toekoms?

Wat hulle wil weet: Hierdie vraag is ontwerp om uit te vind of u gaan bly of weggaan sodra u 'n beter geleentheid kry. Hou u antwoord gefokus op die werk en die onderneming, en herhaal aan die onderhoudvoerder dat die posisie ooreenstem met u langtermyn doelstellings.

Conduct and etiquette during interview / Gedrag en etiket tydens onderhoud

Tips for during the interview

After you've spent time preparing, you can be successful on interview day by practicing these tips:

Wenke vir tydens die onderhoud

Nadat u tyd aan voorbereiding bestee het, kan u op die onderhoudsdag suksesvol wees deur hierdie wenke in te oefen:

1. Bring copies of your resume, a notebook and pen. Take at least five copies of your printed resume on clean paper in case of multiple interviewers. Highlight specific accomplishments on your copy that you can easily refer to and discuss. Bring a pen and small notebook. Prepare to take notes, but not on your smartphone or other electronic device. Write information down so that you can refer to these details in your follow-up thank you notes. Maintain eye contact as much as possible.

Bring afskrifte van u CV, 'n notaboek en pen saam. Neem ten minste vyf eksemplare van u gedrukte CV op skoon papier in geval van verskeie onderhoudvoerders. Beklemtoon spesifieke prestasies op u eksemplaar waarna u maklik kan verwys en bespreek. Bring 'n pen en 'n klein notaboekie. Berei voor om aantekeninge te neem, maar nie op u slimfoon of ander elektroniese toestel nie. Skryf inligting neer sodat u na hierdie besonderhede kan verwys in u opvolg-dankie-notas. Handhaaf oogkontak soveel as moontlik.

2. Plan your schedule so that you can arrive 10–15 minutes early. Map out your route to the interview location so you can be sure to arrive on time. Consider doing a practice run. If you're taking public transportation, identify a backup plan if there are delays or closures.

Pro-tip: When you arrive early, use the extra minutes to observe the workplace dynamics.

Beplan u skedule sodat u 10-15 minute vroeg kan arriveer. Beplan 'n kaart van u roete na die plek van die onderhoud, sodat u seker kan wees dat u betyds opdaag. Oorweeg dit om 'n oefenlopie te doen. As u openbare vervoer neem, identifiseer 'n rugsteunplan as daar vertragings of sluitings is.

Pro-tip: As u vroeg arriveer, gebruik die ekstra minute om die werkplekdinamika waar te neem.

3. Make a great first impression. Don't forget the little things—shine your shoes, make sure your nails are clean and tidy, and check your clothes for holes, stains, pet hair and loose threads. Display confident body language and a smile throughout.

Maak 'n wonderlike eerste indruk. Moenie die klein dingetjies vergeet nie - laat jou skoene blink, maak seker dat jou naels skoon en netjies is en kyk na klere vir gate, vlekke, troeteldierhare en los drade. Vertoon selfversekerde lyftaal en 'n glimlag regdeur.

4. Treat everyone you encounter with respect. This includes people on the road and in the parking lot, security personnel and front desk staff. Treat everyone you don't know as though they're the hiring manager. Even if they aren't, your potential employer might ask for their feedback.

Behandel almal wat u teëkom met respek. Dit sluit mense op die straat en parkeerterrein in, sekuriteitspersoneel en personeel in die ontvangskantoor. Behandel almal wat u nie ken nie, asof hulle die aanstellingsbestuurder is. Al is dit nie so nie, kan u potensiele werkgewer vir hul terugvoering vra.

5. Practice good manners and body language. Practice confident, accessible body language from the moment you enter the building. Sit or stand tall with your shoulders back. Before the interview, take a deep breath and exhale slowly to manage feelings of anxiety and encourage self-confidence. The interviewer should extend their hand first to initiate a handshake. Stand, look the person in the eye and smile. A good handshake should be firm but not crush the other person's fingers.

Beoefen goeie maniere en lyftaal. Beoefen selfversekerde, toeganklike lyftaal vanaf die oomblik dat u die gebou binnekom. Sit of staan hoog met jou skouers terug. Haal diep asem voor die onderhoud en blaas stadig uit om angsgevoelens te hanteer en om selfvertroue aan te moedig. Die onderhoudvoerder moet eerste hul hand uitsteek om 'n handdruk te begin. Staan, kyk die persoon in die oog en glimlag. 'N Goeie handdruk moet ferm wees, maar nie die persoon se vingers verpletter nie.

6. Win them over with your authenticity and positivity. Being genuine during interview conversations can help employers easily relate to you. Showing positivity with a smile and upbeat body language can help keep the interview light and constructive.

Verower hulle met u egtheid en positiwiteit. Om eg te wees tydens gesprekke, kan werkgewers help om maklik met jou aanklank te vind. Positiwiteit met 'n glimlag en optimale lyftaal kan help om die onderhoud lig en opbouend te hou.

7. Respond truthfully to the questions asked. While it can seem tempting to embellish on your skills and accomplishments, interviewers find honesty refreshing and respectable. Focus on your key strengths and why your background makes you uniquely qualified for the position.

Reageer eerlik op die vrae wat gevra word. Hoewel dit aanloklik kan wees om u vaardighede en prestasies te versier, vind onderhoudvoerders eerlikheid verfrissend en respekvol. Fokus op u belangrikste sterk punte en waarom u agtergrond u uniek kwalifiseer vir die pos.

8. Tie your answers back to your skills and accomplishments. With any question you answer, it is important that you tie your background to the job by providing examples of solutions and results you've achieved. Use every opportunity to address requirements listed in the job description.

Werk u antwoorde terug na u vaardighede en prestasies. Met elke vraag wat u beantwoord, is dit belangrik dat u u agtergrond tot die taak verbind deur voorbeelde te gee van oplossings en resultate wat u bereik het. Gebruik elke geleentheid om aan die vereistes in die posbeskrywing te voldoen.

9. Keep your answers concise and focused. Your time with each interviewer is limited so be mindful of rambling. Practicing your answers beforehand can help keep you focused.

Hou u antwoorde bondig en gefokus. U tyd met elke onderhoudvoerder is beperk, wees bedag daarop. As u u antwoorde vooraf oefen, kan dit u help om gefokus te bly.

10. Do not speak negatively about your previous employers. Companies want to hire problem solvers who overcome tough situations. If you're feeling discouraged about your current job, focus on talking about what you've gained from that experience and what you want to do next.

Moenie negatief oor u vorige werkgewers praat nie. Maatskappye wil probleemoplossers huur wat moeilike situasies oorkom. As u moedeloos voel oor u huidige werk, fokus dan op wat u uit die ervaring geleer het en wat u volgende wil doen.

11. Send a Proper Thank You

Yes, even today, a handwritten note is mandatory. Sending a thank you letter via email is fine when the decision must be made quickly, but always follow up with written correspondence. (A voicemail message doesn't take the place of a written note, either.) Express your thanks for the interviewer's time and for the chance to learn more about the company.

No need to go overboard and—please—don't send a gift or flowers after the interview (yes, it's been done).

Stuur 'n behoorlike dankie

Ja, selfs vandag is 'n handgeskrewe nota verpligtend. Dit is goed om 'n bedankingsbrief per e-pos te stuur as die besluit vinnig geneem moet word, maar dit moet altyd opgevolg word met skriftelike korrespondensie. ('n Stemboodskap neem ook nie die plek in van 'n geskrewe nota nie.) Bedank die ondervraer vir sy tyd en vir die kans om meer oor die onderneming te wete te kom.

U hoef nie oorboord te gaan nie en moet asseblief nie 'n geskenk of blomme na die onderhoud stuur nie (ja, dit is al gedoen).

WORKSHEET

Dear Bard:

I am writing to recommend Dr Bard Praesent blandit. Nam nulla. Integer pede justo, lacinia eget, tincidunt eget, tempus vel, pede. Morbi porttitor lorem id ligula. Blythin for consideration in his application for scholarship. I have known Bard for over 1 years Bard has impressed Fusce posuere felis sed lacus. peers and teachers with Fusce posuere felis sed lacus. passion, focus, and determination. With Fusce posuere felis sed lacus. proactive attitude towards achieving Fusce posuere felis sed lacus. goal, Fusce posuere felis sed lacus. never hesitated to ask for help assistance or clarifications.

I have likewise been impressed how Bard gets along well with everyone. Bard is likewise very active in extra curricular activities; Fusce posuere felis sed lacus. works hard and there is no doubt in my mind that Fusce posuere felis sed lacus. will succeed in whatever path Fusce posuere felis sed lacus. will take.

Cras mi pede, malesuada in, imperdiet et, commodo vulputate, justo. In blandit ultrices enim. Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit.

Bard is academically smart and motivated. It manifests with Fusce posuere felis sed lacus. credentials. Following the premises above, I believe that Dr Bard Praesent blandit. Nam nulla. Integer pede justo, lacinia eget, tincidunt eget, tempus vel, pede. Morbi porttitor lorem id ligula. Blythin is very much deserving of a scholarship.

Letter of Recommendation Guidelines (When writing a letter for someone else)

Dear (Name of Employer):

The first paragraph of the reference letter explains your connection to the person you are recommending, including how you know them, and why you are qualified to write a reference letter to recommend employment or graduate school.

The second paragraph of the reference letter contains specific information on the person you are writing about, including why they are qualified, what they can contribute, and why you are providing a reference letter. If necessary, use more than one paragraph to provide details.

When writing a specific letter referring a candidate for a particular job opening, the reference letter will include information on how the person's skills match the position they are applying for. Ask for a copy of the job posting and a copy of the person's resume so you can target your reference letter accordingly.

This section of the reference letter contains a brief summary of why you are recommending the person. State that you "highly recommend" the person or you "recommend without reservation" or something similar.

The concluding paragraph of the reference letter contains an offer to provide more information. Include a phone number within the paragraph, include the phone number and email address in the return address section of your letter or in your signature.

Sincerely,

Timed accuracy test

What are the most popular hiring criteria used in today's business world? Most employers ask questions to gauge an applicant's previous experience and abilities. Unfortunately, many job applicants answer positively to almost any skill-related question, whether or not they have the skills. This is simply because most applicants have a great deal of confidence in their abilities.

Most companies cannot afford to have a new employee learn on company time. The solution is pre-employment testing. This testing occurs before the interview process so that employers know the skill level of an applicant before they have an opportunity to develop an impression of that person. Much time spent in needless interviews can be saved if it is determined early in the hiring process that an applicant lacks basic skills vital to a position.

Whether your new recruit will be filing reports or configuring computer networks, realize that criminal, under-qualified, and emotionally unstable minds hide in all uniforms and job titles. In reality, nearly forty per cent of all job applications and resumes include bogus or inflated facts. Plus, the number of negligent hiring lawsuits is mounting. If your staff member's actions hurt someone, you can be held accountable and sued. With terror acts, corporate scandals and identity theft on the rise, trusting your gut as a basis to hire, is simply unsafe.

We live and work in a world that's so overloaded with information, communication, and gadgets that fighting that irresistible and constant tug to text, tweet, and check our email is becoming harder and harder all the time. That trend is not likely to change anytime soon.

The ability to focus and prioritize has always been critical to success in just about any field, but these days, managing distraction and not succumbing to its addictive qualities has become remarkably challenging for even the most disciplined among us.

Make no mistake: if you can't focus, you can't get things done; and if you can't get things done, somebody else will.

When you question assumptions, claims, and viewpoints instead of just accepting them as gospel, as in "I saw it on the Internet so it must be true," it's called critical thinking. It's fundamental for smart decision-making; and that in turn, is key to being successful at just about anything.

Here's the thing. There's so much garbage out there in the cloud, | in social media, in blogs, on TV, in self-help books, you name it; that your ability to question what's real and what isn't, to reason logically and not generalize from a single data point, is more critical today than ever before.

You know that academic success depends on achieving satisfactory grades. Sometimes, however, students who are typically successful, find their academic performance begins to slide for personal reasons. Prolonged unhappiness or dissatisfaction with one's self or one's relationships with others can drain a student's energy and become a hindrance to academic effectiveness.

Yes, students can get depressed or anxious and find themselves having a hard time shaking it off. It's not an unusual occurrence; but if it goes on for weeks, you should be concerned. When social or emotional issues get in the way in your life, do something about it.

The first step is to find someone with whom you can talk about it. This usually makes a world of difference. Don't continue to hold it in. Get a self-help book or audiotape, even consult a counsellor. Take care of yourself by eating and sleeping regularly, and exercise. Make yourself go to class. Fight back and work to regain control of your life. Your | emotional health and academic success go hand in hand.

I always wanted to be a doctor. I grew up very aware of injustice and wanted to make a difference. If you simply observe how well ordinary people survive and live with great adversity, you will end up having boundless respect for them.

All I ever wanted to do in life was to look after sick people. I think that is still my greatest talent. It is certainly where I find my deepest satisfaction. I am guided by three principles: attention to detail, compassion and hard work. Together, they usually solve most problems.

My passion is now research. I find it exciting and fulfilling. My dream is to inspire others to use science and clinical work to offer service to people. My work is frustrating | as it is not fully understood. The gap between laws, ideas and bringing something about is huge. I would love to take law makers down to the theatre and let them experience the challenges we are faced with every day. Trying to get sick people operated | on is a nightmare. It is so important that patients are provided with what they require. Most times, this is certainly not the case.

Timed accuracy test

There is a good chance that, if you are reading this, you have some computer experience. However, I do know many people for whom surfing the Web was their first contact with a computer. Many have not gone further than that. This is written for those people.

In most places of business, a computer is standard. In the bank they use computers to look up your account information. They use computers in the auto repair shop to assess your car. You can't find books in the library by looking in a card catalogue; you must use a computerised database. Doctors' offices utilise computers to store patient information. The point is this — no matter where you find employment, there is a good chance a computer will be a basic tool you will have to use. It is in your best interests to start off computer literate. It will help you get a job and it will help you advance in your career. Computer literacy does not mean you need to know how use every single piece of software you may encounter. It does not mean | you need to know how to write programs or network computers. You just need to know some basics — how to save and open a file, how to use a word processing program, and how to send and receive email — for starters. It means having some sort of level | of comfort around computers rather than a look of fear and a feeling of foreboding.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Open a new Excel document. Type the spreadsheet Stationery. This spreadsheet calculates the cost of stationery items.
 - a. Insert the necessary formula to calculate the total cost per item. Copy the formula to the rest of the cells. See how the cell references in the formulas are adjusted, so that the correct values are always multiplied with one another.
 - b. Calculate the subtotal, as well as the 14% VAT.
 - c. Now determine the total cost with VAT included.
 - d. Format all the monetary amounts as currency in South African Rands.

1. Open 'n nuwe Excel-dokument. Tik die sigblad Skryfbehoeftes. Hierdie sigblad bereken die koste van skryfbehoeftes.

a. Voeg die nodige formules in om die totale koste per item te bereken. Kopieer die formules na die res van die selle. Kyk hoe die selverwysings in die formules aangepas word, sodat die regte waardes altyd met mekaar vermenigvuldig word.

b. Bereken die subtotaal sowel as die 14% BTW.

c. Bepaal nou die totale koste met BTW ingesluit.

d. Formateer al die geldbedrae in Suid-Afrikaanse rand as geldeenheid.
