What is office administration?

It covers a basic knowledge of administrative and client services, communication skills and competency in computer typing, crucial to the successful functioning of any office or business environment. Without it, the office will have no structure and balance. The person responsible has an important role in answering the phone, taking messages, typing email or agendas, taking minutes and keeping all the paperwork and files up to date.

Week 1-2

RECEPTION AREA / ONTVANGSAREA

Understand the maintenance of a reception area:

- Visitor control:
 - visitor cards / register
 - receiving visitors with/without appointment
 - security measures

VISITOR'S REGISTER AND VISITOR'S CARDS

In all organisations with access control, visitors are required to complete a Visitor's or Reception Register (see Figure 1). The official will then provide the visitor with a visitor's card and ask the visitor to enter the number on the register. The visitor will be instructed to wear this card at all times while on the premises and to hand it back when leaving. If hostile intentions are suspected or the security official feels suspicious of a visitor, she/he may have the visitor searched or escorted to her/his destination or on rare occasions may even deny access. Every visitor's card issued must be collected and verified on departure to prevent unauthorised use of the card.

VISITOR'S REGISTER

Date:

CARD NUMBER	NAME OF VISITOR	ID NUMBER	COMPANY	TELEPHONE NUMBER	REASON FOR VISIT	PERSON VISIT	TIME IN	TIME OUT	SIGNATURE
58	S Brown	78xxxxxxxx	BRN CC	0825671212	Repairs	J Sing	08:10	09:11	SBrown
59	Q Faure	76xxxxxxxx	CLAY & Co	0843526179	Order query	T Black	08:35	09:25	Q Faure

The visitor's register is a permanent record of persons who visited the organisation. The security official must ensure that the visitor completes the required information in each column.

- In organisations with high-level security, the ID number is verified as well. The information on the visitor's register can assist the security official to direct the visitor to her or his destination.

- Note that in smaller organisations that do not make use of security staff at the entrance to the premises, the receptionist is often required to have visitors complete a visitor's register, issue a visitor's card and direct them to their destination.

The visitor's card has the firm's name on it the word VISITOR in large print and a number with a tag with which to attach to clothing (see FIGURE 2). Different coloured cards may be used for different sections of the premises to make it easier to monitor access to restricted areas.

ENRICHMENT ACTIVITY

Access control in different type of organisations

Make a list of at least ten different types of businesses and other organisations in your community. (such as banks, supermarkets, hairdressers, restaurants, etc.). Form a small group and discuss:

- * Why would each of these businesses or organisations need to restrict access to their premises?
- * How does this affect the visitor?
- * How can it be made more friendly?

*

Make notes on discussion points / Maak notas soos besprekingspunte

Activity 2

Practice assessment – Role-play access control

Imagine that you are working in a medium-sized organisation as a receptionist where you are responsible to receive visitors and perform access control at the same time. A part-time security official whose only duty is to check visitors for the possession of firearms and other dangerous metal objects by means of a hand-held scanner assists you.

- Design your own visitor's register (adding a column for the date as well) on a computer in landscape layout and print two copies. Hand one in for assessment by your teacher and the other one you will use in a role-play situation in the simulated office when you have to complete the register for three visitors. (after your role-play, glue your register in your book).
- You also have to produce visitor's cards that will be used in the role-play. You may attach these cards by means of a safety pin to the clothes of the visitor.
- The following criteria (Rubric) will be used to assess your achievements.

Design your visitor's card

Teacher's notes:

Plan how you want the role-play to proceed and inform the students about it. You have to appoint 'visitors' from among the students and set them up as follows:

- one to be easy-going and complete the register without question
- another complaining about the waste of her/his time
- another to say she/he is in a hurry and cannot complete the register right now
- another who cannot see the use of the visitor's register
- all visitors mostly unfriendly and bothered by this access control
- another that makes an error when completing it

RUBRIC (Formal / Informal assessment)

Criteria: Understanding the various filing systems:	Score
1. perform the necessary preparation at the required standard of performance for the practical assessment.
2. develop an acceptable visitor's register (in two fold) and visitor's cards that are clearly identifiable.
3. receive the visitors in a friendly and hearty manner.
4. deal with difficult and unfriendly visitors confidently.
5. observe that visitors complete the visitor's register correctly and provided help when a mistake was made.
6. do a realistic self-assessment of own performance.
7. express a clear and logical opinion on the role of access control and of the visitor's register.

RECEIVING VISITORS WITH AN APPOINTMENT

A visitor with an appointment enjoys preference over other visitors. This visitor is expected and the information about his name and reason for the visit will be in the appointment book or in your desktop diary or the diary on your computer. The procedure of reception for these visitors is thus quite simple and is normally as follows:

- After you have greeted the visitor, you will confirm with him the details as recorded.
- You will then ask the visitor to take a seat while you will contact the office of the person the visitor wants to see to confirm whether he is ready to receive the visitor.
- If the person (official) is ready to receive the visitor, he must be taken through immediately.
- If the person (official) is not ready to receive the visitor, inform the visitor likewise, request him to wait and give an estimate of the waiting time.
- While the visitor is waiting, offer the visitor refreshments and ensure that suitable reading material is available.
- If the delay is longer than expected, you can apologise to the visitor and exchange a few words to let him know that you have not forgotten about him.
- It is good practice to remind the person (official) that the visitor is still waiting.
- Once the official is available, inform the visitor and follow procedure to get the visitor to the official.

RECEIVING VISITORS WITHOUT AN APPOINTMENT

When a visitor without an appointment arrives at the reception desk, the guidelines for the procedure of reception are normally as follows:

- After you have greeted the visitor, politely enquire about the reason for his visit.
- If the visitor names an executive or official he wishes to see, you have to make sure whether this executive or official is the right person he should see. If not, suggest the name of the right person. Whether this is accepted by the visitor proceed as follows:
 - Inform the visitor that you will see if you can help him, without making any promises.
 - Ask the visitor to take a seat while you contact the required person to confirm whether he is able to receive the visitor.
 - If he is able to receive the visitor, the visitor must be taken through immediately.
 - Give an estimated waiting time if the official is unable to see the visitor at that time.
 - If the official is unable to see the visitor at all, arrange an appointment at a suitable date and time that is acceptable to both.
 - If the official does not want to receive the visitor now or later, you have to convey this message to the visitor in a polite and tactful manner.

SECURITY MEASURES

GENERAL SECURITY OF A BUILDING OR WORKPLACE

Security procedures fall under the safety policy of an organisation.

This policy aims to protect employees, visitors, buildings, equipment and other assets in the organisation. No visitors should be allowed in areas where confidential information, projects or processes (especially those that are being patented) are being carried out. Visitors and employees should never take photos of their workplace or the products that are being made.

Physical and psychological barriers can be implemented to secure offices and work places. E.g.:

- security personnel can monitor access in and out of the work place
- vehicles are stopped at the entrance
- visitor's information are written down in an access book before a vehicle or any person can enter the premises
- at reception, entrance to offices can be blocked by doors or gates
- visitor's must sign the visitors book

SEKURITEITSMATREËLS

ALGEMENE SEKURITEIT VAN 'N GEBOU OF WERKPLEK

Sekuriteitsprosedures val onder die veiligheidsbeleid van 'n organisasie. Hierdie beleid het ten doel om werknemers, besoekers, geboue, toerusting en ander bates in die organisasie te beskerm. Geen besoekers mag toegelaat word in gebiede waar vertroulike inligting, projekte of prosesse (veral dié wat gepatenteer word) uitgevoer word nie. Besoekers en werknemers moet nooit foto's van hul werkplek of die produkte wat gemaak word, neem nie.

Fisiese en sielkundige hindernisse kan geïmplementeer word om kantore en werkplekke te beskerm. Bv.:

- sekuriteitspersoneel kan toegang in en buite die werkplek monitor
- voertuie word by die ingang gestop
- 'n besoeker se inligting word in die toegangsboek neergeskryf voordat 'n voertuig of enige persoon die perseel betree
- by ontvangs, kan toegang tot kantore deur deure of hekke geblokkeer word
- 'n besoeker moet die besoekersboek teken

Activity 1 / Aktiwiteit 1

Answer the following questions to establish if your school / business' level of security is on par.
Beantwoord die volgende vrae om vas te stel of jou skool / besigheid se sekuriteitsvlak reg is.

1. What areas of the school / business are potential security targets?

Watter areas van die skool / besigheid is potensiale sekuriteitsteikens?

2. What is the general attitude towards security in the school / business?

Wat is die algemene houding tov sekuriteit by die skool / besigheid?

3. Who is responsible for the security?

Wie is verantwoordelik vir die sekuriteit?

4. Is there an emergency plan and how often is it practiced?

Is daar 'n noodplan en hoe gereeld word dit uitgeoefen?

5. What security systems are in place at school at the moment?

Watter sekuriteitssisteme is tans in plek by die skool?

Important emergency and security information

Important telephone numbers and addresses must be kept in a secure place. The receptionist must have a copy of this. Each classroom must have an emergency exit plan displayed in the class.

Fire:

Ambulance:

Police:

Names, phone number and address of key personnel who need to be contacted in the case of an emergency.

Belangrike noodgeval en sekuriteits informasie

Belangrike telefoonnommers en adresse moet in 'n veilige plek gebêre word. Die ontvangspersoon moet 'n afskrif van dit hê. Elke klaskamer moet 'n noodplan teen 'n muur vertoon hê.

Brandweer:

Ambulans:

Polisie:

Name, telefoonnommers en adresse van belangrike personeel wie gekontak moet word as daar 'n noodgeval is.

Activity 2 / Aktiwiteit 2

1. What security measures have been implemented in the school?

Watter sekuriteitsmaatreëls word geïmplimenteer by die skool?

2. Do you think they are effective? Explain

Dink jy dit is effektief? Verduidelik

3. Visit a local store or business and research the following:

Besoek 'n winkel of besigheid en navors die volgende:

a) What is the security risk of the particular store or business?

Wat is die sekuriteitsrisiko van die spesifieke winkel of besigheid?

b) What measures have they taken to ensure that their staff, buildings and equipment are secure?

Watter maatreëls het hulle in plek om te verseker dat die personeel, die gebou en die toerusting veilig is?

4. Why is it important for employees to adhere to security procedures?

Hoekom is dit belangrik dat personeel die sekuriteitsmaatreëls toepas en gehoorsaam?

What to do if security is being breached?

Security risks: If you observe breach of security or identify a potential security risk, you need to contact your immediate supervisor and discuss the issue with them.

Suspicious behaviour: If you observe a strange person or an employee acting in a suspicious manner, you need to report him to the security department or personnel.

Wat moet gedoen word as sekuriteit oortree word?

Sekuriteitsrisiko's: As jy sekuriteitskending ondervind of 'n potensiële sekuriteitsrisiko identifiseer, moet jy jou direkte toesighouer kontak en die probleem met hulle bespreek.

Verdagte gedrag: As jy 'n vreemde persoon of werknemer op 'n verdagte manier waarneem, moet jy hom aan die sekuriteitsdepartement of personeel rapporteer.

Water has no detrimental effect on wool. Should your clothes have become wet through rain, allow them to dry at room temperature. Brush them as soon as they are dry and hang them on a hanger. Fabrics with a pile should be brushed in the direction of the pile only.

Do not store wool clothes unless they are spotlessly clean. It is a known fact that moths always attack the stained part first. At present, some dry-cleaners are offering special moth-proofing services, but should such services not be available, the following hints could be useful.

After cleaning, fold the clothes and place them in sealed containers. To make doubly sure, sprinkle the container with a moth-proofing agent. Pay special attention to the inside of pockets, pleats and the underside of lapels.

Some of the moth-proofing agent can be placed on the shelves of the cupboard in which they are to be stored. Should you give your wool clothes the treatment they deserve, they will reward you richly where comfort, smartness and durability are concerned and you too will be convinced that there is no substitute for wool. The appearance of shininess found on the trousers of men's suits is quite commonly found.

Should a blanket be striped, hang it so ...

The hub of the wheel is probably the most important part of the wheel. This allows the wheel to turn and to perform its work properly. The spokes are attached to the hub. The outer part, or tread of the wheel is in turn attached to the spokes. The hub maintains the balance of the wheel. It ensures that the wheel runs smoothly and straight. If the hub is faulty, the whole wheel is unbalanced. Then the motion of the wheel is uneven and it pulls to the side.

Your character can be compared to the hub of a wheel. If it is strong and well-balanced, your whole life, everything you think and do is then kept in balance. Your character has three components – thoughts or intelligence, emotions or feelings, and willpower or will. ^{15 wpm} These three together form the heart of the person or the hub of your life or personality.

Your character is strong when you have a healthy approach to your thoughts. Healthy emotions help you keep good relationships with others and to live ^{20 wpm} in peace and love. Without willpower, the best plans and finest dreams never become a reality. Healthy willpower, therefore, also forms part of a strong character. Travellers' cheques can be purchased at any commercial bank and is a convenient method of payment when you go overseas or you which to travel. These days, most shopping centres are equipped with special banks where overseas currency can be exchanged or bought. Travellers' cheques can be bought by anybody, even if the person does not have a bank account. It can be used in any place and be used for payment to any person or business.

Use your travellers' cheques for local or overseas payments. If you go overseas, you buy the cheques at the face value of the currency of the specific country you are planning to visit. The advantage of travellers' cheques is that you do not have to carry large sums of money with you. However, they ^{15 wpm} can be cashed only by the person whose name appears on the cheques. They must be signed in the presence of a bank official and in the presence of the person to whom the cheque is paid.

If you go overseas and are lucky enough, on your return, to ^{20 wpm} still have some cheques in your wallet, you must remember to exchange them within two weeks at a commercial bank. After this, they have no value and you can lose your money. If the cheques have been issued in dollars or pounds, you will not be able ^{25 wpm} to use them in this country.

SPEED TEST – 4

Every week there is a growing number of children whose parents die as a result of aids-related diseases. The basic needs of orphans like food, clothing, shelter and medical care are only too visible in our local communities. It is unlikely that orphans will be absorbed into the normal school system. Without the care and love of a parent or guardian, children's emotional development can be severely affected.

There are even children who have to fill the role of head of a household. These children, just like those that live on the streets or stay with family where they are unwelcome, are very vulnerable in terms of neglect, abuse and exploitation. Their chances of infection with the aids-virus are almost unavoidable. It is also ^{15 wpm} easy to look down upon these children. There ought to be permanent, social safety nets in place in the community for children. Orphans are exposed to the opposite.

There are various proposed projects to support aids orphans. The question is ^{20 wpm} however, whether it is enough and sustainable in a country where frightening statistics are forecast. Daar is elke week 'n groeiende getal kinders wie se ouers 59 sterf weens vigsverwante siektes. Die basiese behoeftes van 121

weeskinders soos kos, klere, beskutting en mediese sorg, is 181

pynlik sigbaar in die hedendaagse samelewing. Weeskinders 241 skoolstelsel nie. Sonder die koestering en liefde van 'n 356

ouer of voog, word kinders se emosionele ontwikkeling 410

geweldig belemmer. 429

Daar is kinders wat self die rol moet vervul van hoof in 'n 491 huishouding. Hierdie kinders, net soos daardie wat op 547

straat woon of inwoon by familie waar hulle nie welkom is 605

nie, is geweldig kwesbaar vir verwaarlosing, mishandeling en 666 uitbuiting. Hulle kanse op besmetting met die vigsvirus, is 728

feitlik onvermydelik. ^{15 wpm} Daar word ook maklik neergesien 784 op hierdie kinders. In 'n samelewing behoort daar 836 bestendige, sosiale veiligheidsnetten in plek te wees vir 893 kinders. Weeskinders is aan die teenoorgestelde 943

blootgestel. 956

Daar is wel verskeie projekte wat geloods ^{20 wpm} word om 1008 vigswesies te ondersteun. Die vraag is egter of dit 1062

voldoende is en volhoubaar is in 'n land waar skrikwekkende 1122 oor ses of sewe jaar ongeveer twee en 'n half miljoen 1240 weeskinders ^{25 wpm} wees, onder die ouderdom van vyftien jaar. 1295

It is very important to protect your computer against viruses. The best advice is to remain calm, be informed and prepared, because most viruses can be removed without causing any damage to your files or computer system.			55
			117
			224
The best solution therefore, is to acquire a program that will trace viruses and eliminate the virus. Such a program should immediately inform the user of the presence of a virus. He should then decide what to do. Initially, allow the program to run every day or night to trace the viruses. After this you can set it to search the system once a week. Search the web for the harmful codes and allow the program to update the list and be prepared to trace and destroy any new viruses. Dit is baie belangrik om jou rekenaar teen virusse te beskerm. Dit is raadsaam om kalm te bly, ingelig te wees en paraat te bly, want die meeste virusse kan maklik verwyder word sonder dat jou programme of rekenaar beskadig word.	55

Die beste metode is om 'n program aan te koop wat virusse kan opspoor en behoorlik kan uitwis. So 'n program behoort 'n virus dadelik op te spoor en die gebruiker dan daaroor in te lig. Jy moet dan kan kies wat jy volgende wil doen. As jy vermoed daar is virusse in jou stelsel, moet jy die program aanvanklik elke dag of nag laat loop om die virusse op te spoor. Hierna kan jy dit stel om een maal per week die stelsel te deursoek. Gaan soek op die web na die skadelike kodes en laat die program die lys opdateer en paraat wees in die opsporing en vernietiging van nuwe virusse. Isoleer besmette dokumente en plaas dit onder kwarantyn totdat dit herstel kan word.	293

Nuwe programme wat virusse opspoor, ontvang feitlik elke week outomaties nuwe definisies vanaf hulle navorsers of verskaffers. Maak seker 'n stoffie is virusvry voordat jy dit oopmaak. Letters / Briewe

Rules for Writing Formal Letters

In English there are a number of conventions that should be used when writing a formal or business letter. Furthermore, you try to write as simply and as clearly as possible, and not to make the letter longer than necessary. Remember not to use informal language like contractions.

Addresses:

1) Your Address

The return address should be written in the top right-hand corner of the letter.

2) The Address of the person you are writing to

The inside address should be written on the left, starting below your address.

Date:

Different people put the date on different sides of the page. You can write this on the right or the left on the line after the address you are writing to. Write the month as a word.

Salutation or greeting:

1) Dear Sir or Madam,

If you do not know the name of the person you are writing to, use this. It is always advisable to try to find out a name.

2) Dear Mr Jenkins,

If you know the name, use the title (Mr, Mrs, Miss or Ms, Dr, etc.) and the surname only. If you are writing to a woman and do not know if she uses Mrs or Miss, you can use Ms, which is for married and single women.

Ending a letter:

1) Yours Faithfully

If you do not know the name of the person, end the letter this way.

2) Yours Sincerely

If you know the name of the person, end the letter this way.

3) Your signature

Sign your name, then print it underneath the signature. If you think the person you are writing to might not know whether you are male or female, put your title in brackets after your name.

Reëls vir die skryf van formele briewe

In Engels is daar 'n aantal konvensies wat gebruik moet word by die skryf van 'n formele of sakebrief. Verder probeer jy so eenvoudig en so duidelik as moontlik te skryf, en nie die brief langer as nodig te maak nie. Onthou om nie informele taal soos kontraksies te gebruik nie.
adresse:

1) u adres

Die retouradres moet in die boonste regterkantste hoek van die brief geskryf word.

2) Die adres van die persoon aan wie jy skryf

Die binnekant adres moet aan die linkerkant geskryf word, onder u adres.

3) Datum:

Verskillende mense sit die datum op verskillende kante van die bladsy. Jy kan dit regs of links op die lyn skryf na die adres waaraan jy skryf. Skryf die maand as 'n woord.

Aanhef of groet:

1) Geagte Meneer of Mevrouw,

As jy nie die naam van die persoon aan wie jy skryf, weet nie, gebruik dit. Dit is altyd raadsaam om 'n naam uit te vind.

2) Geagte mnr Jenkins,

As u die naam ken, gebruik die titel (Mnr, Mev, Mej. Of Me, Dr, ens.) En die van slegs. As jy aan 'n vrou skryf en nie weet of sy Mev of Mej gebruik nie, kan jy Me, wat vir getroude en enkelvroue is, gebruik.

Einde van 'n brief:

1) Groete Geloof

As jy nie die naam van die persoon ken nie, beëindig die letter op hierdie manier.

2) Die uwe

As jy die naam van die persoon ken, beëindig die letter op hierdie manier.

3) U handtekening

Teken jou naam en druk dit dan onder die handtekening. As jy dink die persoon wat jy skryf, dalk nie weet of jy manlik is nie, plaas jou titel tussen hakies na jou naam.

5th July 20XX

Subject: Nursing job resignation letter

Respected Ma'am,

Through this letter, I would like to inform you that I am resigning from the job post of a nurse from your respectable nursing clinic. The last date of my employment at Red Cross Nursing Clinic would be 15th July 2014. I would like to take this opportunity to first of all thank you for having faith and belief in my nursing skills and for presenting me with an opportunity to serve the patients.

During my 2 years of experience under your guidance, I was able to learn a lot about patient care, health care and nutrition, advanced nursing practices, medical treatments etc. The working atmosphere, the nursing staff, the lunch hours, the relationships with patients and every moment that was spent here will always be cherished by me.

I hope to stay in touch with you always. Please feel free to contact me on 4949394, if I can be of any help to you for the smooth processing of the resignation procedures. I wish you all the best for your continued services.

Thanking you.

Sincerely,

Frieda Alex

Onderwerp: Verplegingsbrief vir verpleegwerk

Gerespekteerde Mevrou,

Deur hierdie brief wil ek u graag meedeel dat ek bedank uit die pos van 'n verpleegster van u gerespekteerde verpleegkliniek. Die laaste datum van my diens by die Rooikruisverpleegkliniek sal 15 Julie 2014 wees. Ek wil graag van hierdie geleentheid gebruik maak, dankie vir die geloof en geloof in my verpleegvaardighede en om my die geleentheid te bied om die pasiënte te bedien.

Tydens my 2 jaar ondervinding onder leiding van my kon ek baie leer oor pasiëntsorg, gesondheidsorg en voeding, gevorderde verpleegpraktyke, mediese behandelings, ens. Die werksfeer, verpleegpersoneel, middagete, verhoudings met pasiënte En elke oomblik wat hier spandeer word, sal altyd deur my gekoester word.

Ek hoop om altyd met jou in kontak te bly. Kontak my gerus asseblief op 4949394, as ek u van hulp kan wees vir die gladde verwerking van die bedankingsprosedures. Ek wens jou die beste vir jou voortgesette diens.

Bedank u.

Dear Mr. Doe:

I am writing you concerning a recent purchase of widgets. Approximately two weeks ago, on October 1, I ordered a total of 50 widgets for Company, Inc. via the Widgets Galore client webpage. I received an email notification two days later confirming the receipt of payment and the shipment of the widgets. According to your website, shipments should reach their destination within 3-5 business days of being sent, but I have yet to receive the widgets. Do you have any information on what may have happened to delay the shipment or where the shipment is currently?

I have worked with Widgets Galore, Inc. in the past and have the greatest confidence in your products and customer service. We need the shipment of widgets soon, however, and I hoped you might be able to provide me with an idea of when I can expect them. Thank you in advance for any help you might be able to offer.

Sincerely,

Geagte Meneer Doe:

Ek skryf jou oor 'n onlangse aankoop van widgets. Ongeveer twee weke gelede, op 1 Oktober, het ek 'n totaal van 50 widgets vir Company, Inc. bestel via die Widgets Galore-kliëntwebblad. Ek het twee dae later 'n e-pos kennisgewing ontvang wat die ontvangs van betaling en die verskeping van die widgets bevestig. Volgens jou webwerf moet verskepings binne drie besigheidsdae na die stuur van hul bestemming bereik word, maar ek het nog nie die widgets nodig nie. Het jy enige inligting oor wat moontlik gebeur het om die verskeping te vertraag of waar die verskeping tans is?

Ek het in die verlede gewerk met Widgets Galore, Inc. en het die grootste vertroue in jou produkte en kliëntediens. Ons het egter gou die verskeidenheid widgets benodig, en ek het gehoop jy sal my dalk 'n idee kan gee van wanneer ek dit kan verwag. Dankie by voorbaat vir enige hulp wat u moontlik kan bied.

Rubriek vir briefSPREADSHEETS

A spreadsheet or worksheet is a file made of rows and columns that help sort data, arrange data easily, and calculate numerical data. What makes a spreadsheet software program unique is its ability to calculate values using mathematical formulas and the data in cells. A good example of how a spreadsheet may be utilized is creating an overview of your bank's balance.

- Spreadsheet overview.
- Difference between a workbook, worksheet, and spreadsheet.
- Examples of spreadsheet programs.
- Examples and uses of a spreadsheet.
- What is an active worksheet?
- How many worksheets open by default?
- What is the length limit of a worksheet name?
- How are rows and columns labeled?
- Why not use a word processor instead of a spreadsheet?

- Download an example of a spreadsheet file.
- Related spreadsheet pages.

Spreadsheet overview

Below is a basic example of what a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet looks like, as well as all the important features of a spreadsheet highlighted.

In the above example, this spreadsheet is listing three different checks, the date, their description, and the value of each check. These values are then added together to get the total of $162.00 in cell D6. That value is subtracted from the check balance to give an available $361.00 in cell D8.

Difference between a workbook, worksheet, and spreadsheet

Because the terms spreadsheet, workbook, and worksheet are so similar, there can be a lot of confusion when trying to understand their differences. When you open Microsoft Excel (a spreadsheet program), you're opening a workbook. A workbook can contain one or more different worksheets that can be accessed through the tabs at the bottom of the worksheet you're currently viewing. What's often most confusing is that a worksheet is synonymous with a spreadsheet. In other words, a spreadsheet and worksheet mean the same thing. However, most people only refer to the program as a spreadsheet program and the files it creates as spreadsheet files.

Examples of spreadsheet programs

Today, Microsoft Excel is the most popular and widely used spreadsheet program, but there are also many alternatives. Below is a list of spreadsheet programs that can be used to create a spreadsheet.

- Google Sheets - (online and free).
- iWork Numbers - Apple Office Suite.
- LibreOffice -> Calc (free).
- Lotus 1-2-3 (discontinued).
- Lotus Symphony - Spreadsheets.
- Microsoft Excel.
- OpenOffice -> Calc (free).
- VisiCalc (discontinued).

Examples and uses of a spreadsheet

Although spreadsheets are most often used with anything containing numbers, the uses of a spreadsheet are almost endless. Below are some other popular uses of spreadsheets.

Finance

Spreadsheets are ideal for financial data, such as your checking account information, budgets, taxes, transactions, billing, invoices, receipts, forecasts, and any payment system.

Forms

Form templates can be created to handle inventory, evaluations, performance reviews, quizzes, time sheets, patient information, and surveys.

School and grades

Teachers can use spreadsheets to track students, calculate grades, and identify relevant data, such as high and low scores, missing tests, and students who are struggling.

Lists

Managing a list in a spreadsheet is a great example of data that does not contain numbers, but still can be used in a spreadsheet. Great examples of spreadsheet lists include telephone, to-do, and grocery lists.

Sports

Spreadsheets can keep track of your favorite player stats or stats on the whole team. With the collected data, you can also find averages, high scores, and statistical data. Spreadsheets can even be used to create tournament brackets.

What is an active worksheet?

An active worksheet is the worksheet that is currently open. For example, in the Excel picture above, the sheet tabs at the bottom of the window show "Sheet1," "Sheet2," and "Sheet3," with Sheet1 being the active worksheet. The active tab usually has a white background behind the tab name.

How many worksheets open by default?

In Microsoft Excel 2016 and earlier and OpenOffice Calc, by default, there are three sheet tabs that open (Sheet1, Sheet2, and Sheet3). In Google Sheets, your spreadsheets starts with one sheet (Sheet1).

In Microsoft Excel 365, by default, there is only one sheet tab that opens (Sheet1).

What is the length limit of a worksheet name?

Not to be confused with the file name, in Microsoft Excel, there is a 31 character limit for each worksheet name.

How are rows and columns labeled?

In all spreadsheet programs, including Microsoft Excel, rows are labeled using numbers (e.g., 1 to 1,048,576). All columns are labeled with letters from A to Z, then with two letters. For example, after the letter Z, the next column is AA, AB, AC, ..., AZ and then incrementing to BA, BB, BC, etc., to the last column XFD.

When working with a cell, you combine the column with the row. For example, the very first cell is in column A and on row 1, so the cell is labeled as A1.

- How many sheets, rows, and columns can a spreadsheet have?

Why not use a word processor instead of a spreadsheet?

While it may be true that some of the things mentioned above could be done in a word processor, spreadsheets have a huge advantage over word processors when it comes to numbers. It would be impossible to calculate multiple numbers in a word processor and have the value of the calculation immediately appear. Spreadsheets are also much more dynamic with the data and can hide, show, and sort information to make processing lots of information easier.

Insert or delete a column

1. To insert a column, select the column, select Home > Insert > Insert Sheet Columns.
2. To delete a column, select the column, select Home > Insert > Delete Sheet Columns.

Or, right-click the top of the column, and then select Insert or Delete.

Insert or delete a row

1. To insert a row, select the row, select Home > Insert > Insert Sheet Rows.
2. To delete a row, select the row, select Home > Insert > Delete Sheet Rows.

Or, right-click the selected row, and then select Insert or Delete.

Insert a cell

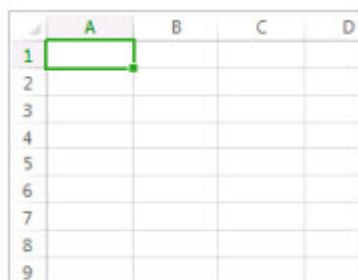

1. Select one or more cells. Right-click and select Insert.
2. From the Insert box, select a row, column or cell to insert.

potential is the grid of cells. Cells can contain numbers, text, or formulas. You put data in your cells and group them in rows and columns. That allows you to add up your data, sort and filter it, put it in tables, and build great-looking charts. Let's go through the basic steps to get you started.

Create a new workbook

Excel documents are called workbooks. Each workbook has sheets, typically called spreadsheets. You can add as many sheets as you want to a workbook, or you can create new workbooks to keep your data separate.

1. Click File, and then click New.
2. Under New, click the Blank workbook.

SIGBLAAIE

'N Sigblad of werkblad is 'n lêer gemaak van rye en kolom wat help om data te sorteer, data maklik te reël en numeriese data te bereken. Wat 'n spreadsheet sagteware program uniek maak, is die vermoë om waardes te bereken deur wiskundige formules en data in selle te gebruik. 'N Goeie voorbeeld van hoe 'n sigblad gebruik kan word, is om 'n oorsig van jou bank se balans te skep.

- Sigblad oorsig.
- Verskil tussen 'n werkboek, werkblad en sigblad.
- Voorbeelde van sigbladprogramme.
- Voorbeelde en gebruike van 'n sigblad.
- Wat is 'n aktiewe werkblad?
- Hoeveel werkkaarte is standaard oop?
- Wat is die lengte limiet van 'n werkblad naam?
- Hoe word rye en kolomme gemerk?
- Hoekom nie 'n woordverwerker in plaas van 'n sigblad gebruik nie?
- Laai 'n voorbeeld van 'n sigbladlêer af.
- Verwante sigbladbladsye.

Sigblad oorsig

Hieronder is 'n basiese voorbeeld van hoe 'n Microsoft Excel-sigblad lyk, sowel as al die belangrike kenmerke van 'n sigblad wat uitgelig word.

In die bostaande voorbeeld bevat hierdie sigblad drie verskillende tjeks, die datum, die beskrywing en die waarde van elke tjek. Hierdie waardes word dan saam bygevoeg om die totaal van $ 162.00 in sel D6 te kry. Die waarde word afgetrek van die tjekbalans om 'n beskikbare $ 361.00 in sel D8 te gee.

Verskil tussen 'n werkboek, werkblad en sigblad

Omdat die terme spreadsheet, werkboek en werkblad so soortgelyk is, kan daar baie verwarring wees wanneer hulle hul verskille probeer verstaan.

Verskil tussen 'n werkboek, werkblad en sigblad

Omdat die terme spreadsheet, werkboek en werkblad so soortgelyk is, kan daar baie verwarring wees wanneer hulle hul verskille probeer verstaan. As u Microsoft Excel oopmaak ('n sigbladprogram), maak u 'n werkboek oop. 'N Werkboek kan een of meer verskillende werkkaarte bevat wat deur die oortjies onderaan die werkblad wat u tans besigtig, verkry kan word. Wat dikwels die mees verwarrend is, is dat 'n werkblad sinoniem is met 'n sigblad. Met ander woorde, 'n sigblad en werkblad beteken dieselfde ding. Die meeste mense verwys egter slegs na die program as 'n sigbladprogram en die lêers wat dit skep as sigbladlêers.

Voorbeelde van sigbladprogramme

Vandag is Microsoft Excel die gewildste en mees gebruikte sigbladprogram, maar daar is ook baie alternatiewe. Hieronder is 'n lys van sigbladprogramme wat gebruik kan word om 'n sigblad te skep.

- Google Blaaie - (aanlyn en gratis).
- iWork-nommers - Apple Office Suite.
- LibreOffice -> Calc (gratis).
- Lotus 1-2-3 (gestaak).
- Lotus Simfonie - Spreadsheets.
- Microsoft Excel.
- OpenOffice -> Calc (gratis).
- VisiCalc (gestaak).

Voorbeelde en gebruike van 'n sigblad

Alhoewel sigblaaie die meeste gebruik word met enigiets wat getalle bevat, is die gebruike van 'n sigblad amper eindeloos. Hier volg 'n paar ander gewilde gebruike van sigblaaie.

- Finansies

Spreadsheets is ideaal vir finansiële data, soos jou rekeningbesonderhede, begrotings, belasting, transaksies, faktuur, fakture, kwitansies, voorspellings en enige betalingsstelsel.

- vorms

Vormsjablone kan geskep word om voorraad, evaluerings, prestasie-resensies, vasvrae, tydskrifte, pasiëntinligting en opnames te hanteer.

- Skool en grade

Onderwysers kan spreadsheets gebruik om studente op te spoor, grade te bereken en toepaslike data te identifiseer, soos hoë en lae tellings, ontbrekende toetse en studente wat sukkel.

lyste

Om 'n lys in 'n sigblad te bestuur is 'n goeie voorbeeld van data wat nie getalle bevat nie, maar kan steeds in 'n sigblad gebruik word. Groot voorbeelde van sigbladlyste sluit in telefoon-, doen- en kruidenierslyste.

- Sport

Spreadsheets kan hou van jou gunsteling speler statistieke of statistieke op die hele span. Met die versamelde data kan jy ook gemiddeldes, hoë tellings en statistiese data vind. Spreadsheets kan selfs gebruik word om toernooi hakies te skep.

Wat is 'n aktiewe werkblad?

'N Aktiewe werkblad is die werkblad wat tans oop is. Byvoorbeeld, in die Excel-prent hierbo, verskyn die bladtabelle onderaan die venster "Sheet1," "Sheet2" en "Sheet3", met Sheet1 die aktiewe werkblad. Die aktiewe oortjie het gewoonlik 'n wit agtergrond agter die bladnaam.

Hoeveel werkkaarte is standaard oop?

In Microsoft Excel 2016 en vroeër en OpenOffice Calc is daar standaard drie bladlabs wat oopmaak (Sheet1, Sheet2 en Sheet3). In Google Blaai begin jou sigblaai met een vel (Sheet1). In Microsoft Excel 365 is daar gewoonlik slegs een bladblad wat oopmaak (Sheet1).

Wat is die lengte limiet van 'n werkblad naam?

Om nie te verwar met die lêernaam in Microsoft Excel nie, is daar 'n limiet van 31 karakters vir elke werkblad naam.

Hoe is rye en kolomme gemerk?

In alle sigbladprogramme, insluitend Microsoft Excel, word rye gemerk met nommers (bv. 1 tot 1.048.576). Alle kolomme is gemerk met letters van A tot Z en dan met twee letters. Byvoorbeeld, na die letter Z, is die volgende kolom AA, AB, AC, ..., AZ en dan na BA, BB, BC, ens., Na die laaste kolom XFD.

Wanneer jy met 'n sel werk, kombineer jy die kolom met die ry. Byvoorbeeld, die heel eerste sel is in kolom A en op ry 1, dus die sel is gemerk as A1.

- Hoeveel lakens, rye en kolomme kan 'n sigblad hê?

Hoekom nie 'n woordverwerker in plaas van 'n sigblad gebruik nie?

Alhoewel dit waar mag wees dat sommige van die bogenoemde dinge in 'n woordverwerker gedoen kan word, het sigblaai 'n groot voordeel bo woordverwerkers wanneer dit by nommers kom. Dit sal onmoontlik wees om veelvuldige nommers in 'n woordverwerker te bereken en die waarde van die berekening word dadelik vertoon. Sigblaai is ook baie meer dinamies met die data en kan versteek, wys, en sorteer inligting om verwerking baie inligting makliker te maak.

Voeg 'n kolom in of verwyder

1. Om 'n kolom in te voeg, kies die kolom, kies Tuis> Invoeg> Voeg kolomme in.
 2. Om 'n kolom uit te vee, kies die kolom, kies Tuis> Invoeg> Verwyder velkolomme.
 Of kliek regs op die bokant van die kolom en kies dan Invoeg of verwyder.

Voeg 'n ry in of vee dit uit

1. Om 'n ry in te voeg, kies die ry, kies Tuis> Invoeg> Voeg rye in.
 2. Om 'n ry te verwyder, kies die ry, kies Tuis> Invoeg> Verwyder velde.
 Of, met die rechtermuisknop op die geselekteerde ry, kies dan Insert of Delete.

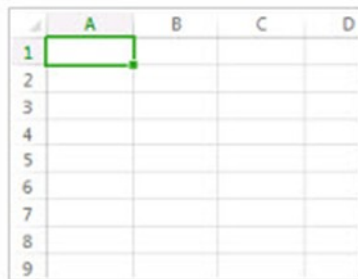

Voeg 'n sel in

1. Kies een of meer selle. Regskliek en kies Invoeg.
 2. Kies 'n ry, kolom of sel om in te voeg in die invoervak.
 potensiaal is die rooster van selle. Selle kan getalle, teks of formules bevat. Jy sit data in jou selle en groepeer hulle in rye en kolomme. Dit laat jou toe om jou data op te tel, te sorteer en te filter, in te stel tafels, en bou mooi kaarte. Kom ons gaan deur die basiese stappe om jou te begin.

Skep 'n nuwe werkboek

Excel-dokumente word werkboeke genoem. Elke werkboek het velle, tipies genoem sigblaaie. Jy kan soveel lakens byvoeg as wat jy wil in 'n werkboek, of jy kan nuwe werkboeke skep om jou data apart te hou.

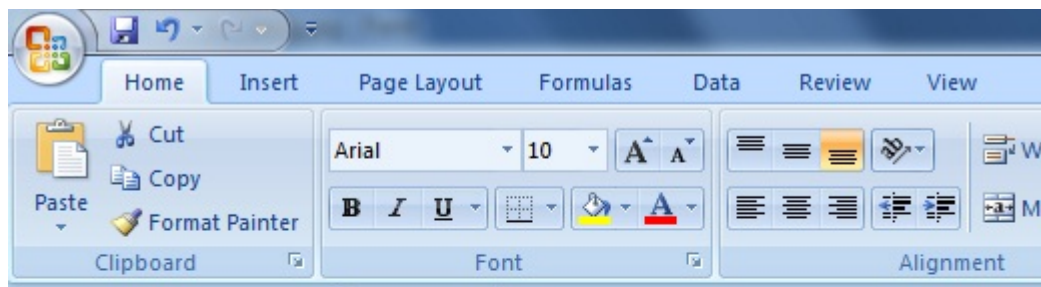

1. Klik op Lêer en klik dan op Nuwe.
2. Klik onder New op die leë werkboek.

THE RECEPTION AREA

It is where your company makes its first physical impression on clients, partners, and prospective employees. As such, an effective reception area should embody your company's ideals, brand, and message through all elements of the environment, from the architecture to the interior design to the technology. With attractive and informative signage, tailored greetings for your guests, and live TV for entertainment, an integrated technology solution allows you to connect with your guests and make a great first – and lasting – impression.

The Reception Area is a medium to large area that guests encounter when they first enter a building or office suite. The technology in this room enables organizations to:

- Reinforce the brand by using corporate logos, colours, and more
- Display information about the company and its products or services
- Welcome guests with custom messages and alert them when someone is ready for them
- Entertain and inform guests with live TV
- Monitor, manage, and automatically power-down TVs from a central location

DIE ONTVANGSGEBIED

Dit is waar jou maatskappy sy eerste fisiese indruk op kliënte, vennote en voornemende werknemers maak. As sodanig moet 'n effektiewe onthaalarea jou ideale, handelsnaam en boodskap beliggaam deur alle elemente van die omgewing, van die argitektuur tot die interieurontwerp tot die tegnologie. Met aantreklike en insiggewende tekens, aangepaste groete vir jou gaste, en live TV vir vermaak, bied 'n geïntegreerde tegnologie-oplossing jou die geleentheid om met jou gaste te skakel en 'n uitstekende eerste en blywende indruk te maak.

Die ontvangsarea is 'n medium tot groot area wat gaste ontmoet wanneer hulle eers 'n gebou of kantoorpakket betree. Die tegnologie in hierdie kamer stel organisasies in staat om:

- Versterk die handelsmerk deur gebruik te maak van korporatiewe logo's, kleure en meer
- Vertoon inligting oor die maatskappy en sy produkte of dienste
- Welkom gaste met persoonlike boodskappe en waarsku hulle wanneer iemand gereed is vir hulle
- Vermaak gaste met live TV
- Monitor, bestuur en outomaties afskakel TV's vanaf 'n sentrale plek

Corporate image

A corporate identity or corporate image is the manner which a corporation, firm or business presents themselves to the public (such as customers and investors as well as employees).

The corporate identity is typically visualized by way of branding and the use of trademarks,^[4] but it can also include things like product design, advertising, public relations etc.. .

In general, this amounts to a corporate title, logo (logotype and/or logogram) and supporting devices commonly assembled within a set of corporate guidelines. These guidelines govern how the identity is applied and usually include approved colour palettes, typefaces, page layouts, fonts, and others.

Consistency is absolutely essential in a corporate identity kit as it projects the external image of the company. Today, companies of all backgrounds and sizes in South Africa invest significant amounts of money in developing corporate identities. This is because the persona that a company projects often has significant influence regarding the way people view the company.

The branding used in the design of a corporate logo and identity kit usually involves a specific colour scheme so that the entire product family is immediately recognizable. A variety of different materials may be included in a corporate identity package, such as:

- Brochures
- Catalogues
- Business cards
- Letterhead
- Stationary
- Flyers
- Printed advertisements
- Posters
- Presentation folders
- E-mail templates

Regardless of the size of your company at the moment, it is essential that you be able to present a professional, uniform message to your vendors as well as your clients. Quality business cards and matching letterhead and envelopes allows you to do precisely that.

Your corporate identity kit includes anything that is related to the brand image of your company. Consequently, your website as well as any magazine or newspaper advertisements could also be included in your corporate identity package. The ultimate goal of a corporate identity kit is to ensure that your customers know you and immediately recognize your materials.

In today's competitive business world, it is absolutely essential that each company have its own distinctive and unique corporate logo and identity. In the past, many small companies felt there was no need to invest in developing a corporate identity. Today, that is no longer the case. A professional corporate identity kit is just as important for small companies as it is for multi-national firms.

Keep your reception area clean

Ensuring that your office is cleaned regularly is essential in keeping the workplace looking and feeling pleasant, although as well as ensuring that the immediate working area is crystal clean, you also need to ensure that your reception area receives just as much attention.

Your workplace reception area is the first place which any visitors and business contacts will see when they step inside the building, and as first impressions count for so much you need to make sure that you make a good one.

Whether your reception area is small or large, ensuring that every corner is properly cleaned can be difficult when you're trying to run a busy business, and this is why the services of an office cleaning professional is essential.

This is how you can ensure a clean reception area

1. Make sure your reception area is visually clean. Keep the reception area free of trash. Avoid storing items like boxes of files within eyesight.
2. The reception desk and all workstations nearby should also be clean and organized. Assume visitors may look at any papers left out in the open. Therefore, keep confidential documents, and especially information about your customers or key vendors, hidden .
3. Have a clear traffic flow within the reception area. Make first time visitors to your office comfortable through visual cues that indicate exactly where to go to check in as soon as they step into your lobby. Pathways should be clear.
4. Inform visitors where the restrooms are. Use signage so visitors can direct themselves without needing to ask for assistance.
5. Offer cold and hot beverages, like water, coffee and tea. Extra credit for also providing healthy snacks. Napkins and visible trash and recycling bins will help keep your lobby clean.
6. Allow visitors to shed outerwear by giving them access to a coat closet or rack and umbrella stand.
7. Furnish your reception area with enough comfortable seating for your typical visitor flow
8. Provide reading materials, ideally about your own company, your industry and other topics that will interest your visitors
9. If you have a TV in the waiting area, use it wisely. Consider looping a video on your business. Highlight the products and services you offer. Otherwise, tune your television to a channel of general interest to business people like the news or financial information.

10. Music, too, should have broad appeal. Keep it quiet enough to allow employees and visitors can have a conversation in the lobby. Any employees within earshot of the door should wear headphones if listening to music at their desks. Headphones also help employees increase productivity by avoiding distractions.
11. Avoid overly strong and artificial odours. The aroma of coffee will delight most visitors as they step inside. Otherwise, with so many people suffering from allergies, perfumes, colognes and other cover up smells should be avoided.

Maintain a diary

- Purpose of business diary
- Different types of diaries
- Record/ change entries

MAINTAIN A DIARY1. The purpose of using a diary system?

Time is very important and it can be utilised in a very efficient way by maintaining a diary system. The efficient planning and organisation of your own time and other people's is, therefore, one of the most important activities that you can get involved with.

The diary is one of the major resources within the office, without which, none of us would know where we should be or what we should be doing at any given time.

The diary may be maintained manually or electronically.

2. Different types of diary system

Diary systems can basically be divided into two types:

2.1 Manual systems

The most common type of manual diary system in use in offices is the bound book in which appointments are recorded.

These may be:

- One day per page
- Two days per page
- One week to view
- Two weeks to view

When selecting the most appropriate type of manual diary to use, you will need to consider how many entries you are likely to make in any one day.

An alternative to a bound book is a loose leaf system, often known as a time manager. This has the advantage that the diary section is continuous. New pages are simply added as the years go on, so there is no need to obtain a new diary towards the end of each year.

2.2 Electronic systems

Electronic diaries can be maintained on a personal computer, a laptop, a palmtop or an electronic organiser. They have a number of advantages over manual systems:

- Highlighting potential conflict between appointments
- Entry of regular events once only
- Less paper is used.
- Password protection.
- Multiple access is available.
- On screen reminder of appointments.
- Database compatibility.
- Electronic contact.

3. Recording of diary entries

Information such as time, duration, date, venue, attendees, chair, visitors are required to make diary entries.

3.1 Why should you prioritise requests and how do you do that?

It is essential that you prioritise actions that you need to take in the event of receiving a number of requests or changes to arrangements at the same time. Obviously the changes are probably best dealt with in chronological order. Also everyone involved with the meeting have to be contacted and made sure it is convenient for everyone before requests or changes are confirmed. Changes that affect appointments on the day that you receive the changes, will need dealing with, before changes to appointments or meetings in the future.

3.2 Why should you try to balance the needs of all those involved?

Every person involved in the appointment or meeting has to be given sufficient time for planning, travelling and for other needs so that the meeting goes well smoothly without any problems for anyone. For a meeting to be successful, all of those involved have to be present and be given sufficient preparation time.

3.3 Why should you communicate changes to those affected?

Changes have to be communicated on time, and if you are responsible for other people's diaries it is vital that you communicate any changes to them in good time to enable them to prepare for any meetings or travel involved. It is also important to leave sufficient time in the day for them to deal with routine matters and sufficient travelling time between appointments if necessary.

Others who are affected by the changes will also have other appointments in their diaries. It is important that you do not give them the impression that changes are being made either lightly or, conversely, because something more important has come up.

Electronic diary systems may automatically communicate changes to those involved whose systems are networked with yours, but you will need to get in touch with anybody else affected. Depending on the timescales involved, this may be done by telephone, e-mail, fax, letter or verbally.

3.4 Why should you keep a diary system up to date?

Keeping the diary up to date when changes have been agreed is extremely important. You have to make sure that you have deleted any cancelled appointments. It is both annoying and embarrassing to arrive for an appointment only to be told that it has been cancelled, as well as being a waste of time.

A diary which is not kept completely up to date will have all sorts of confusion. It will make people lose confidence and becomes time wasting.

The efficiency of the whole organisation may be said to depend on the correct upkeep of the diary systems in use.

Week 7-8DRESS CODE

A dress code or policy is designed for almost every business. A dress code is a broad guideline or policy concerned with how employees of an organisation are expected to dress for work. A dress code may also include what an employee should not wear.

Think about the uniform you wear to school. Some companies have their own corporate wear or uniform. This includes a range of mix-and-match pants, shirts, jackets, skirts, etc. (even scarfs, hats, ties, belts), all in corporate colours designed especially for the company. The employees usually get this range free of charge or at a discounted (lower) price.

Activity

Complete the following questions on your own.

1. An invitation to your friend's birthday party states that the dress code is "smart casual", in other words you are expected to dress in a certain way. What would you wear to the party?
2. Study the following pictures and read the captions.
 - 2.1 Do you think that the following people are dressed appropriately for the workplace?
 - 2.2 In your opinion, when would it be appropriate to dress as shown in each of the pictures?

a Financial advisor

a Teller in a bank

a Receptionist

In the past, employees in offices were expected to dress more formally, for example the "power suit" for women and suit and tie for the men. The office dress code has now become more relaxed and casual. Companies still, however, set general standards of appearance laid down in their dress code policy.

Developing a dress code policy

To avoid any misunderstandings, some basic rules about what employees should wear should be put in writing. The following tips are important to keep in mind for someone drawing up a dress code policy:

The company's image: what kind of image does the company want to portray? Some companies want to emphasise their professional image, others are more concerned with presenting an image to which the general public can relate. For example, there are various types of restaurants: there are elegant-formal, casual-sit-in, take-away places, etc. Take notice of how the employees dress in each of these different types of restaurants.

The type of work the employee performs: what would be the appropriate dress for the task? For example, a laboratory technician would need to wear a long white coat; a surgeon needs to wear gloves, a face-mask and a long coat.

Safety issues: to what extent does clothing need to protect the worker from injury? For example, one of the dress code requirements for a miner is to wear a hard hat when mining.

Interaction of employees with people: how much interaction is there between employees and suppliers, competitors, the public, etc? It is important that these employees make a good impression on the people with whom they react.

Activity:

Work with a partner.

- a. How do you think the dress code of a bank might differ from the dress code of an advertising agency?

- b. Think about airlines. How do their employees dress and why do you think they dress in this way?

The South African legislation with regards to smoking is one of the strictest in the world. The Smoking Policy in the work place's rules and regulations are stipulated in the Tobacco Products Control Amendment Act, 1999 (Act No. 12 of 1999). The Smoking Policy must be applied within three months from the date of coming into operation of the business. This is one of the many workplace aspects that have legal implications and companies should take it into serious consideration.

The Smoking Policy in the workplace is not regulated by Labour Law but only by The Tobacco Products Control Act. In terms of this Act, the employer is obliged to take steps to protect his non-smoking staff from the cigarette smoke of the smokers.

What the Tobacco Products Control Act states about Smoking Policy in the workplace:

- Employers are not obliged, whatsoever, to provide smoke breaks for smokers
- If the employer does provide smoke breaks, he is entitled to insist that those employees compensate for time taken for 'smoke breaks' by working over-time without additional remuneration
- He also has the option to total up the 'smoke breaks time' and deduct it from employees' wages at month end.
- The employer is entitled to ban smoking completely on his building or in the workplace if he wishes to alternatively, he has a choice to designate any area of his choice to be the smoking area this could be the roof of the building or the car park
- The employer is under no obligation to provide an alternative smoking area in the event of inclement weather.

In short, the employer is under no obligation to facilitate the addiction of the smoker to the drug nicotine. He is also under no obligation to facilitate the addiction of any employee who may be addicted to alcohol, narcotics and so on. While this may sound logic, it is easier said than done. Tobacco, alcohol and drugs are addictive and addicts often have difficulties to accept reality that limits their ability to enjoy their addiction.

It is important to know that in the Act the workplace is referred to as being a public place.

The employer is obligated to comply with the following regulations in the Act if he wishes to provide a smoking area:

1. An employer or person in control of a public place may designate a portion of a public place as a smoking area, provided that a) the designated smoking area does not exceed 25% of the total floor area of the public place
2. the designated smoking area is separated from the rest of the public place by a solid partition
3. an entrance door on which the sign "SMOKING AREA" is displayed, written in black letters, at least 2 cm in height and 1,5 cm in breadth, on a white background is in place

4. the ventilation of the designated smoking area is such that air from the smoking area is directly exhausted to the outside and is not re-circulated to any other area within the public place;
5. the message: "SMOKING OF TOBACCO PRODUCTS IS HARMFUL TO YOUR HEALTH AND TO THE HEALTH OF CHILDREN, PREGNANT OR BREASTFEEDING WOMEN AND NONSMOKERS. FOR HELP TO QUIT PHONE (011) 720 3145" is displayed at the entrance to the designated smoking area, written in black letters, at least 2 cm in height and 1,5 cm in breadth, on a white background
6. notices and signs indicating areas where smoking is permitted and where it is not permitted must be permanently displayed and signs indicating that smoking is not permitted must carry the warning: "ANY PERSON WHO FAILS TO COMPLY WITH THIS NOTICE SHALL BE PROSECUTED AND MAY BE LIABLE TO A FINE".

An employer or person in control of a public place must ensure that no person smokes anywhere other than in the designated smoking area in that public place. He must protect non-smoking employees or he may choose to totally prohibit smoking in that place.

Activity

1. According to the Tobacco Products Control Act, who should the employer be protecting?

2. Where would you find the following sign?

3. What other sign must be displayed at Designated Smoking areas?

4. Do you agree with the following picture? Motivate your answer.

WORKING HOURS

Punctuality does not only mean being in time for work, but also completing work when your employer needs it. The quick performing of instructions is valued by employers as well as by customers. It improves the image of the company and embarrassments can be prevented.

Most companies treat a late worker as an absent worker. This worker is disciplined and sometimes not paid for the hours lost. The worker can lose his/ her job if they continually arrive late at work.

Effects of not honouring work hours

If you are in the habit of arriving late for work, you will be seen as being unreliable. Clients may assume that the company you work for is unreliable and that it has little interest in their business. Your late coming may lose the company valuable customers.

Other workers may not be prepared to take on any added responsibilities because of your arriving late. These employees may be frustrated because they may make the effort to be at work on time. This would result in poor workplace relationships.

There may be deadlines that you would need to meet. By your arriving late for work, you have less time to work which then causes delays. You may rush through your work – this would affect the quality of your work. Think about what happens when you arrive late for a test.

When you arrive late for work, you are usually stressed. You may not be able to face the work hours ahead of you in a calm and relaxed manner.

ACTIVITY

1. Think of all the possible consequences when:
 - a. a policeman arrives late at a scene of a crime
 - b. ambulance workers arrive late after an accident
 - c. a businessman makes an investment late?
 - d. your hairdresser arrives late for your appointment
 - e. you arrive late for a lecture at college
2. Do you see how important it is to arrive on time for work? Explain this briefly.
3. List reasons why it would be a good idea for office staff to arrive a few minutes earlier at work.
